Charles F. Murphy, Tammany Boss, Dies

Democratic Political Chieftain Battled Way Up From Ranks.

New York, April 25.—Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, died today.

He died at 9:30 o'clock this morning at his residence on East 17th street.

Mr. Murphy succeeded the late Richard Croker as chieftain of the country's most famous political organization. He was a native of New York, born here June 20, 1858.

Acute indigestion was the cause of death.

STREET CAR DRIVER.

A street car driver, who became leader of the most powerful political organization in the world, and as such played a prominent part in the naming of mayors and governors and nominees for the presidency, such is the life story of Charles F. Murphy.

Although denied the advantages of education because of family circumstances, he showed qualities of leadership early in life and from boyhood had been a leader of a circle of one kind or another. In all of them he was uniformly successful, a result that may be said to have been due to his loyalty to friends, his shrewdness and his secretive manner.

CLOSE-MOUTHED

He never discussed his plans with any except his closest lieutenants, and rarely spoke for publication. Whenever he consented to be interviewed he ultimately covered what he had to say in a sentence or two. As a result he became known as "Silent Charlie."

Mr. Murphy's political leadership began in the eighteenth assembly district in 1892, when he became district leader after the death of Edward Hagan. He had built up a large following and it was said that Hagan owed his position as leader largely to the influence and financial support with which Murphy backed him.

On his death bed Hagan named Murphy as his successor and from that time the rise of the future leader of the Democratic party in New York was rapid.

PUBLIC OFFICE.

After Robert A. Van Wyck assumed office as mayor in 1898 he named Murphy commissioner of docks and ferries. The Van Wyck administration was the last under the leadership of the late Richard Croker. For several years prior to the election of Mayor Van Wyck the government of New York City had been subjected to severe criticism, finally resulting in the appointment of the Lexow committee to make an investigation into the affairs of the city. Sensational testimony had been anticipated from Mr. Croker but before the committee began its hearings the Tammany leader went to Ireland, purchased an estate and remained there nearly three years.

Croker then returned to New York and resumed his place as Tammany leader to manage the Van Wyck campaign.

CROKER QUIT AGAIN.

Criticism of the city government continued throughout the Van Wyck administration culminating in the appointment of the Mazet committee by Theodore Roosevelt, then governor, to investigate various departments, especially that of the police. Croker relinquished leadership in 1901 and returned to Ireland.

That move eventually provided the opportunity for Mr. Murphy to become leader. Lewis Nixon had been named chairman of the finance committee which carried with it the leadership but he resigned before completing a year in office and Murphy was chosen for the place.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES.

From 1892 when R. P. Flower was elected in 1910, there had been an unbroken string of Republican governors due to the fact that the Republican votes in the state outside of New York City had grown to such proportions that even the large vote usually polled by Tammany for Democratic candidates was unable to overcome the Republican advantage up-state.

In 1910 the Democrats succeeded in electing J. A. Dix and two years later repeated their success with the election of William Sulzer, who was impeached before completing the first year of his term. Later Alfred E. Smith was elected twice, in 1918 and 1922, making four gubernatorial campaign won by the Democrats during 20 years of Murphy's leadership of Tammany. In the same time the Democrats elected two U. S. senators, J. A. O'Gorman and Dr. F. S. Copeland, and in New York City Tammany had been successful in all mayoralty campaigns except in 1913 when the late John P. Mitchell, a fusion candidate, defeated E. K. McCall, Tammany choice.

MANY CONTROVERSIES.

During his long career Mr. Murphy was confronted with many controversies. In 1923 he was an witness in a suit for $175,000 which he instituted against L. M. Hartog and which became known as the glucose case. The litigation was the outgrowth of a war industry in which both were interested. Murphy's testimony was a feature of the trial.

The jury disagreed and the case eventually was settled out of court as was also a suit for $10,000,000 brought by Hartog against Murphy and others, including the Corn Pro-

Granite City Bank Robbed Of $63,000

Granite City, Ills., April 25.—Bandits today robbed T. D. Gradinaroff, assistant cashier of the Granite City National bank of $63,000 in currency which he had just received at the post office from the St. Louis Federal Reserve bank. Several shots were fired but no one was wounded.

The robbery was staged in front of the bank, across the street from the postoffice. The money was intended for steel company pay rolls.

Gradinaroff said he did not know how many bandits were in the party. They are believed to have used two motor cars in escaping.

FIRE AT BANKERS.

As the robbers drove away, they were fired upon by Charles Worster, assistant postmaster, Louis Fresen, bank cashier, and Gradinaroff.

Worster and Fresen were standing by the postoffice and the bank to guard the man with the money as he crossed the street.

"As I got almost across the street," Gradinaroff said, "a large touring car with curtains drawn, stopped within three feet of me.

HANDED OVER BAGS.

"A man wearing a tan top coat and a light hat got out, pointing a revolver at me, and said 'stick 'em up.' I handed him the two money sacks and he jumped in the car.

"The men who were guarding me then began shooting at the car and at another car which ran right behind it. Some of the men in the car fired back."

TOWARD ST. LOUIS.

J. G. Boggs, president of the bank hearing shots, went out with a revolver and fired at the disappearing cars, which went in the direction of St. Louis.

Some of the spectators said the man on the running board moved as if he had been wounded, and it appeared to them he was pulled in by those inside the car.

The money was sent from the Federal Reserve bank by registered mail to meet the bi-monthly payrolls of the Granite City Steel works of the National Enameling and Stamping company, which pays its employees tomorrow. The money was insured.

St. Louis, April 25—Bandits today held up and robbed Granite City National bank, Granite City, Ill., of currency variously estimated from $46,000 to $63,000 police here were notified.

PRIMARIES COST M'CORMICK $8,000

Sprague Spent $3,000; Deneen Silent.

Washington, D. C., April 25—Charles S. Deneen, Republican nominee for senator from Illinois, has taken advantage of a recent ruling that filing of campaign expenditures is not compulsory and thus far has made no accounting.

He is the only one of the three chief candidates who has failed to do so.

SPRAGUE $2,830.

Albert A. Sprague, Democratic nominee, spent $2,930.25, according to his account. Total expenses of Senator Medill McCormick's campaign were $8,600.77, according to his return.

Formerly it was compulsory to file the expense accounts, but Harry Daugherty, when attorney general, interpreted a Supreme court decision in the Newberry case as doing away with the compulsion, though about half the senatorial candidates still file.

THIRTY HOUSE CANDIDATES FILE.

In the house, thirty Illinois candidates have filed their accounts, although some simply state that there were no expenses and no contributions. Among these are two congressmen at large, Richard Yates and Henry Rathbone. Others are Adolph Sabath (Dem., 5th district), James R. Buckley (Rep., 6th) Stanley Kunz (Dem., 8th), Fred A. Britten (Rep., 9th), Charles Fuller (Rep., 12th), Frank Gillespie (Dem., 17th), Frank H. Frank (Rep., 15th).

John M. Karns of Eldorado, Ill., filed the largest total expenditures, his expenses being listed as $2,581.63. He ran as a Democrat in the 24th district in the same district, K. C. Ronalds (Rep.), filed expenses of $842.23 McPherson Shepard (Rep.) had expenses of $914.55, and T. S. Williams (Rep.), $1,554.

BALLOONS HEAD TOWARD LAKES

Four of Seven Entries Are Still in Competition.

Kansas City, April 25.—Four of the seven balloons which left San Antonio, Texas, Wednesday in the national elimination balloon race were last sighted over northeast Missouri last night bearing steadily in a northeasterly course that was expected to carry them to the Great Lakes.

Army balloon Number 2, piloted by Captain E. W. Hill, landed at Moline, Kansas, yesterday having been forced down by an electrical storm.

Two other bags, army entry No. 3, piloted by Lieut. Ashley McKinley, and the San Antonio, piloted by B. H. Fournier, were wrecked when they were forced down in Oklahoma.

SEEN IN IOWA.

Webster City, Ia., April 25.—A balloon believed to be an entry in the national elimination race passed over Webster City at midnight last night. The bag was traveling at a height of 1,000 feet. The identity of the balloon was not learned.

NEAR DAVENPORT.

Des Moines, Ia., April 25—Radio reports received here from Station WOC at Davenport, Ia., say that the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company balloon, an entrant in the international races, passed over Volga City, Ia., near Davenport about 11 this morning. The bag was reported traveling northwest.

AT HARRISBURG.

Harrisburg, Ill., April 25—Picknickers returning from Shawneetown last night observed a large balloon as it passed over this county moving northwesterly.

DOWN IN IOWA.

Stansgare, Ia., April 25—Army balloon S-14 piloted by Major N. W. Peek, in the national races from San Antonio, landed seven miles south of here near the Minnesota line at 2 a. m. today.

DOWN AT DUBUQUE.

Dubuque, Ia., April 25—Balloon No. 7 in the national balloon race in command of Lieutenant H. V. Thaden, landed in a field five miles southwest of Dubuque this morning.

SEARCH EAST FOR WANDA E. STOPA

Believe Chicago Slayer Travels in Auto.

Chicago, April 25 — Search for Wanda Elaine Stopa, 24, Chicago's youngest woman lawyer and former assistant United States district attorney, was extended to the east today, in the belief that the girl, after killing the care-taker of the home of Y. K. Smith, wealthy advertising man, with whom she was infatuated, fled to New York with her former husband, Vladimier Glaskoff.

During the last four months the girl lived in New York, her expenses paid by Smith, who told State's attorneys he had befriended her because "she was the brainiest woman he ever knew." He said he had taken her to restaurants and theaters, sometimes accompanied by Mrs. Smith, who, sick in bed, jumped through a window yesterday after the girl fired several shots at her.

LINCOLN STATION ROBBED IN DAYLIGHT

Lincoln, April 25—The Lincoln filling station, located at Pekin and Kickapoo streets, was robbed about noon today and the thief made a getaway with an amount said to be between $75 and $100.

Glen Donnan, in charge of the station at the time, was filling the crank case of an auto on the oil rack in the rear of the station. He noticed a Ford coupe drive up and stop at one of the pumps. It required several minutes of his time to complete the oiling job and when he got around to the front, the coupe had disappeared.

A short time later when he started to make change for a customer he discovered that the money kept in the office, had vanished.

It is the second time in several months that the filling station has been robbed.

SCORE ARE INJURED IN TRACTION CRASH

Chicago, April 25—A score of passengers were injured, three probably fatally, in a collision of two Chicago, Aurora and Elgin electric trains in Maywood last night.

A blown fuse on a limited train stalled it and the second train crashed into it. Passengers trampled each other in efforts to escape from the wrecked coaches.

Nels Paulson, William Moore, Maywood, and Miss Elsie Bucher, Hillside, were seriously hurt.

Washington Has Not Heard Of Murder of U. S. Sailors

Official Circles Hope Report From Honduras Is Exaggerated.

Washington, April 25.—Overnight advices to the state and navy departments contained no word of casualties among the American naval forces at Tegucigalpa, capital of Honduras, reported yesterday in unofficial messages from San Salvador.

Officials were inclined to accept the lack of any official report as a hopeful sign. They pointed out that in view of the disturbed conditions in Honduras, it would not be unusual if exaggerated versions of the situation had trickled across the border into Salvador.

Farmers Urge Quick Action On Aid Bill

Illinois and Iowa Men Adopt Resolutions.

Rock Island, Ill., April 25—Immediate passage by congress of the McNary-Haugen bill is urged in resolutions adopted at a large mass meeting of farmers and business men from Illinois and Iowa, held last night in this city. It was declared that this bill alone will bring about the relief that the farmer must have to pull him out of his present impossible condition by raising the purchasing power on basic feed products to a parity with that of those products which the farmer must buy.

The principal talks were given by Sam H. Thompson, Quincy, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, and Frank W. Murphy, a banker and farmer of Wheaton, Minn.

HELIUM WOULD HAVE SAVED LIVES

Washington, April 25.—Helium would have prevented the burning of the Dixmude, ZR-2 and the Roma, Dr. Richard B. Moore of New York City, formerly chief chemist of the United States Bureau of Mines, declared today in an address on "Recent Developments in the Recovery of Helium from Natural Gas" before the petroleum chemistry division of the American Chemical Society.

"In addition to the disaster to the Dixmude," Dr. Moore continued, "the ZR-2 burned over Hull, England, and the Roma burned at Langley Field, Va. In each case the disaster was preceded or accompanied by mechanical troubles, but these need not necessarily have been fatal to any of the crew had these airships been filled with helium."

METHODISTS PLAN CHURCH IN LINCOLN

Lincoln, April 25—Plans for the raising of funds for the construction of a new church building by the congregation of First Methodist Episcopal church were formulated Wednesday evening at a general meeting of both officers and members. A financial campaign will be opened within the next few days in an attempt to raise in the neighborhood of $125,000, the figure at which it is thought a new structure will cost. At the present time, the building fund contains $30,000, two people having contributed $15,000 each in the last few months.

PANAMA DREDGE AT WORK AT FRISCO

San Francisco, April 25—(AP)—Night and day, calm or storm, the giant United States dredge Culebra carries on its task of deepening the channel outside the Golden Gate to make a pathway a ship of any size may enter or leave at any time.

The work will require eighteen months. The channel through the Golden Gate will be made 8,000 feet long, 2,000 feet wide and 42 feet deep at low tide.

British Get Many Laughs From Ice Cream Debate

LONDON, April 25—(AP)—The fun poked by Americans at the British habit of "pottering" around for tea every afternoon is mild compared to the almost hilarious attitude of the Briton toward ice cream. To most Englishmen there seems to be something screamingly funny about ice cream.

The House of Commons has seldom echoed more laughs in a few minutes than it did the other day when a member asked for permission to introduce a bill permitting the sale of ice cream after 9:30 at night. Since the war nocturnal purchasing of ice cream has been illegal, unless it was accompanied by a meal.

FIRST OUTBURST.

The laughter broke out first when Harry Becker, the member for Richmond, introduced his plea. It waxed louder when he said the object was to encourage the development of ice cream and soda fountains in this country. At present, he said, no cream could be sold after 9:30 only if it was part of a meal, and this was a vexatious infringement on the liberties of the people.

More laughter and a few cheers. If ice cream could not be sold after 9:30, the speaker argued, it began to melt and bacteria developed. Uproarous laughter. What would the colonial and foreign visitors to the Empire Exhibition think if they could not order an ice cream after 9:30, or entertain their friends at home with mineral waters? Loud guffaws.

ALL AMUSED.

Hearty old Tories shook with amusement, back-bench Laborites grinned, and the faces of some of the lady members broke out with smiles as Mr. Becker sat down.

Then someone added to the general mirth by suggesting a division to let the whole House decide whether the ice cream bill might be presented. It all seemed too funny for words so no one seconded the motion.

BOBBY-ETTE

Mary S. Allen, head of the London policewomen, who has come to the United States to study American police methods. The "bobbyettes" have devised the uniform shown in the picture. They consider skirts a nuisance.

VOICE DESERTS HIRAM JOHNSON

Closes Campaign Tonight At Toledo; Health Run Down.

Cleveland, O., April 25—(AP)—Senator Hiram Johnson, California, will close his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination in a speech at Toledo tonight.

He will return to Washington tonight. Failure of his voice and his rundown physical conditions prevented an Indiana campaign Mr. Johnson said.

Cancellation of his Indiana campaign trip closes Mr. Johnson's entire campaign for the nomination, no other speeches having been scheduled after the Indiana campaign, he said.

FORCES COMBINE TO SAVE LIVES

Aurora, April 25.—Theaters, school authorities, the Aurora Chamber of Commerce, police officers and parents are co-operating in the formation of a Junior Safety Legion here which is designed to reduce the number of children killed or injured by automobiles.

Jap Military Machine Hurt By "No Funds"

Army Lacks Up-to-Date Equipment.

Tokio, April 25—(AP)—The leaders of the Japanese army are planning to modernize the organization, Lieutenant-General Kazushige Ugaki, minister of war, has appointed a commission with the vice-minister of war, Lieutenant-General Ichisuke Tsuno, as chairman, to study the question of bringing the equipment of the land forces up to date.

Its report will be ready by March of 1925. In connection with this work a party of Japanese army officers has gone abroad to study modern organization in France, Great Britain and the United States.

SINCE 1905.

It is pointed out that generally the equipment of the Japanese army has changed little since the Russo-Japanese war. At the same time it is realized that the question of money is one of the most difficult involved in the problem.

Earthquake reconstruction is keeping the army appropriations to a low figure. The modernization program, in the beginning, must be paid for largely out of economies effected within the army.

WEAK IN AIR.

Japan's military leaders consider their greatest deficiency to be in aviation. The army air forces now consist of six flying squadrons.

The high command would like to double this number, although the problem of training enough aviators is a serious one, probably more serious than the shortage of funds at present, for the Japanese have not proved themselves good aviators, and the high casualty rate among flying officers does not make the service attractive to young men seeking a military career. However, the authorities are considering an aviation expansion program to spread over approximately five years.

CHEMICAL WARFARE.

Chemical warfare is almost a closed book to the Japanese army. Although Japan has no intention of nullifying the Washington submarine and poisonous gas treaty, her army leaders plan extensive research into the employment of and defence against the latest chemical weapons.

Japan is without tanks, to all practical purposes. A few were brought back to Japan after the war for study purposes, but there is no branch in the Japanese army corresponding to the tank corps of the American and European forces. Motor transport also is backward in the Japanese army. The use of armored cars also will receive consideration from General Tsuno's committee.

AMBITIOUS HIKING PROGRAM IS HALTED BY HOMESICKNESS

Gillespie, April 25—Emily Westwood, thirteen-year-old daughter of Samuel Westwood, and Florence Hutton, fourteen-year-old daughter of Charles Hutton, decided that going to school was a pretty dull occupation as long as the world offered so many opportunities for adventure.

So after school they left on a hike to California. After reaching Bunker Hill they decided to ride as far as East Alton and continue the walk from there.

When they arrived at that point thoughts of home seemed paramount and they returned by rail to halt a frantic search being conducted by their parents.

WEEKS STOPS WAR DEPARTMENT POSTER

Buffalo, N. Y., April 25 — A war department poster attacking certain women's organizations for disloyalty has been recalled by Secretary of War Weeks, it was disclosed today by Mrs. Maude W. Park before the national league of women voters convention.

VOICE PROTESTS TO HENRY FORD'S BID

Washington, April 25.—Further opposition to Henry Ford's Muscle Shoals bid was presented today before the senate agriculture committee, which had allotted time to Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, to express his views on disposal of the project. Chairman Norris also was ready to press his proposal to continue the hearings one week after April 29, the date originally set for its conclusion.

SEEK TOTAL OF M'CRAY'S LOANS

Indianapolis, April 25.—Testimony regarding the amount of money loaned Governor McCray was continued today by bankers, witnesses for the prosecution in the trial of the governor on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

The government is attempting to prove that McCray obtained money through the discounting of forged and valueless notes purporting to have been taken in return for the sale of cattle.

Child Labor House Vote Expected To Bring Sharp Fight

Two-Thirds Majority Required For Foster Amendment.

Washington, April 25.—The house voted today to give immediate consideration to the Foster resolution proposing a child labor amendment to the constitution. Six hours were alloted for debate and a final vote is expected tomorrow.

SEE CLOSE VOTE.

Washington April 25—Although unable to bring up the Foster resolution proposing a child labor amendment to the constitution until today, Republican leaders expect the house to dispose of the measure before adjournment tomorrow.

Plans to call up the resolution yesterday failed because of the unexpected lateness of action on the department of agriculture appropriation bill, carrying $57,000,000.

A two-thirds majority will be required for adoption of the child labor resolution and a close vote is predicted by both advocates and opponents.

Senate Speeds Tax Measure

Nippon Turns Notes Loose On Coolidge

Japs Continue to Protest Exclusion Bill.

Tokio, April 25—(AP)—Japanese reaction to the United States immigration legislation is in a quiescent state while officials and public alike are waiting to learn whether President Coolidge will sign or veto the measure.

Public bodies are continuing to pass resolutions of protest which are being forwarded to Washington.

HEARS OPPOSITION.

Washington, April 25—As the senate and house conferees met today to give the final touches to the new immigration bill, President Coolidge was receiving a resume of the situation as viewed by members of congress opposed to Japanese exclusion.

Senator Colt, Republican, Rhode Island, laid before the president his reason for viewing the Japanese provisions as harmful to American interests.

President Coolidge did not indicate his position.

Washington, April 25.—Meeting earlier than usual the senate started work today on the tax reduction bill.

At the conclusion of speeches yesterday outlining the views of the Republicans and Democrats on the measure, Chairman Smoot of the finance committee announced he would call for immediate reading of the bill today for action on committee amendments. All controversial amendments he said, will be passed over for later action.

The opening of debate yesterday brought forward the Mellon income tax schedule, placed in the bill by the finance committee Republicans as the main point of controversy.

BONUS TO CONFERENCE.

The soldier bonus bill was formally ordered to conference by the House late Thursday for adjustment of Senate amendments, with prediction by leaders of both Houses of an early agreement, and report of the measure to the President.

Senator Curtis, Republican, Kansas, sponsor of the bill in the Senate, and Chairman Green, of the House, ways and means committee, indicated they hoped the measure would be sent to the White House early next week, if not on Saturday. The Senate amendments were generally of a minor nature.

BENEFITS TO HEIRS.

Some discussion was heard as to the effect of the amendment adopted by the Senate, on motion of Senator Jones, Democrat, New Mexico, making dependents of all veterans who have died, eligible to receipt of the adjusted service pay of such veterans.

The amendment struck out a provision which specified that if the dependents had received war risk insurance as a result of the veterans' death, the adjusted service compensation could not be paid. Proponents of the bill believed, however, that this change would cause no difficulty in conference.

Reassertions of claims that a two-thirds majority could be obtained for the bill to override a presidential veto if such action was taken by President Coolidge, were made privately today by leaders in both Houses of Congress.

REJECT PROPOSAL.

A proposal of Secretary Mellon designed to check capital loss deductions was rejected by the senate today without a record vote.

Without opposition the senate agreed also to the committee amendment proposing to allow only articles selling for $25 or less exemption from the five per cent jewelry tax. The house had voted exemption for all articles selling for less than $40.

Exemption of produce and merchandise brokers from the $50 brokers tax then was agreed to and restoration of the full $10 tax on billiard and pool tables and bowling alleys was approved. The house had cut this tax in half.

DOUBLE WEDDING OF TUSCOLA PEOPLE

Was Withheld Several Days from Public.

Tuscola, April 25 — Particulars concerning a double wedding which took place here on Sunday night, just became public Thursday. Soon after the news began to circulate around town, both of the bridegrooms made full "confessions" and began to hand out cigars to their friends.

The contracting couples were C. W. Dearduff of Tuscola and Miss Ella Thompson of Arthur, and P. J. O'Neal of Tuscola, and Miss Pauline Thompson, whose home is Tuscola but who for some time has been working in Champaign. While the family names of the brides are the same, they are in no way related.

Mr. Dearduff and Miss Thompson of Arthur had planned to be married next Sunday, April 27, and Mr. O'Neal and Miss Thompson of Tuscola had planned to be married about June 1.

"WHY NOT NOW."

The two couples were in Tuscola together Sunday evening, driving about town, and each knowing of the plans of the other, there was some chattering which resolved itself into "Eventually, why not now."

Mr. Dearduff, who was driving the car, pulled up in front of the home of County Clerk C. A. Hawkins and Mr. Hawkins was taken to the court house, where he issued the licenses. The party then drove up to the home of the Rev. Horace Batchelor of the Presbyterian church and waited for him to come home from his evening church service, when both couples were married with the same ceremony.

ALL WELL KNOWN.

All of the young people are well known in Tuscola. Mr. O'Neal is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Neal of this place and was brought up here. He attended the Tuscola public schools and since his graduation has been employed as a clothing salesman and for several years has been the manager of the clothing department for the Star Store here. He is an ex-service man of the World war, and is a past master of Tuscola Lodge A. F. & A. M. His bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson of this place. She was brought up in Tuscola and is a graduate of the local high school and of a Champaign business college. She has been employed by the Moorehead Furniture company of Champaign since her graduation from the business course. Mr. O'Neal recently purchased a cottage on the north side, from James A. Meece. Mrs. O'Neal has resigned her position in Champaign, effective not later than June 1, and they will go to housekeeping as soon as she is relieved from her work there.

THE OTHERS.

Mr. Dearduff is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Dearduff, both of whom died when their son was a small boy. He was brought up in Tuscola by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Dearduff. He attended the Tuscola public schools and for ten years was with what is now the Farmer's State bank in Tuscola as a bookkeeper. For the last two years he has been the manager of the Tuscola Car and Tractor company's plant, handling Ford cars and Fordson tractors. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Thompson of Arthur. She is not so well known here but has visited in Tuscola frequently and has a large number of friends here. She is a graduate of the Arthur public schools and of a teachers' training school. She has been teaching in and around Arthur for several terms and at present is engaged in teaching. She will finish her present school term before coming to Tuscola to go to housekeeping. Mr. Dearduff has leased the Claude Hoel cottage on the north side, and they will be at home there to their friends as soon as Mrs. Dearduff has completed her teaching contract at Arthur.

BROUGHT HOME ILL.

Mrs. George White of Newman came to Tuscola Thursday afternoon from the south via the Illinois Central, and was taken from here to her home at Newman in the private invalid coach of J. C. Waddington. Mrs. White had been spending the winter at West Palm Beach, Fla., where she was stricken several days ago with partial paralysis. Her son Fred L. White of Newman went to Florida to bring his mother home. They came up on the "Floridan," fast train of the I. C. which was stopped here to land them. It was necessary to bring Mrs. White on a cot as one entire side of her body is paralized.

The Music Department of the Tuscola Woman's club will finish its year's work with the meeting on Tuesday afternoon, April 29, at the home of Mrs. D. H. Wamsley. The program committee will have charge and the subject will be "American Music."

Miss Blanche Caraway came down from Evanston Thursday afternoon to visit Tuscola friends and look after her farm at Murdock.

C. F. Carter of Decatur was a Thursday visitor in Tuscola.

Mrs. J. C. Waddington and Mrs. O. B. Moorehead drove to Arthur and return on Thursday afternoon.

IVESDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stout and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Tabaka visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and family in Decatur Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Maley Jr., and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Maley and family returned to Indiana Tuesday after visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Maley and attending their 50th wedding anniversary here Sunday.

—FIVE STORES IN DECATUR—

Flesh!

MANY are the eyes that are turned to gaze with keen admiration on the well developed, healthy girl no matter where she may be—on the rapidly moving thoroughfare or gliding gracefully over the dance floor.

All eyes turn because we all appreciate the girl with the figure so firm and plump—the girl with redolently red cheeks, cheeks that carry a touch of roses from nature's own garden—the girl with the sparkling eyes, keen and sharp—the girl with buoyancy and the swing of youth.

Not necessarily an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S., since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—retarded vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. Watch that flabby, ill nourished flesh fade away before flesh that is firm and plump. Red blood cells will do it and S. S. S. will build them. It contains only pure vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The larger size bottle is more economical.

CASSELLS START BACK TO DECATUR

Expect to Arrive Middle of May.

BUY IN FLORIDA

Get Bungalow and Two Vacant Lots.

Clearwater, Fla., April 21, 1924.

Editor Review—We start for Decatur in the morning. It is about 1400 miles from here to Decatur and we don't expect to make more than 125 to 150 miles per day and also visit for a day at several places along the way, therefore we do not expect to arrive there until about the second week in May.

We have spent a very pleasant winter here in spite of the lack of much of the usual Florida sunshine and an over supply of chilly days.

However, at no time did it freeze or frost.

DEVELOPING LAND.

Florida is fast getting into the class of California, northern men of wealth are coming down here and buying land all over Florida and developing it into groves, truck farms and building sites. An unpaved street or road here is quite different from up there. There a street or road may be smoothed and graded and be a very satisfactory thoroughfare in dry weather, but not so here, where the soil is simply sand. There is where the northern capitalist steps in and furnishes the money to do the paving and developing and makes a large per cent on his investment. Last year on a street that was not paved, lots sold for $250; this year after being paved, the same lots cannot be bought for less than $1000 with paving, which costs about $135, paid.

COME TO STAY.

Clearwater has doubled in permanent population in the last four years and no doubt the same is true of other Florida cities. In years past the tourist came for the winter season and then left in the spring; now many of them remain all year, many purchasing their own homes. Contrary to the general supposition, Florida summers are cooler than the northern. Many are finding this to be true and remain here the year round.

RENTS.

Renting heretofore has been by the season, that is from Nov. 1 to May 1, and you either had to pay the entire amount down or one-half down and the other half Jan. 1, and the rent was so high you practically had to pay a whole year's rent. This year Miami, Tampa and some of the other cities have rented simply by the month as we do in the north, and next year, St. Petersburg, Clearwater and other cities will probably do likewise.

BUY PROPERTY.

Just two weeks ago we invested in some Florida real estate, a furnished bungalow and two vacant lots beside it on a corner, and now we are half Florida "Cracker" and half Illinois "suckers." Our cottage we have rented at a seventeen per cent. profit and we hope we will be able to subdue our gypsy inclinations and remain in Decatur next winter.

Very truly,
Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Cassell.

TAKES PEPGEN; GAINS 7 POUNDS

"I felt tired and draggy and it was hard for me to do anything without tiring myself," said Mrs. Charles Gedonek, 539 N. Third St., this city. "But that was before I took Pepgen. I feel much better now.

"Before I took Pepgen my appetite was poor and even what little I ate disagreed with me. Gas formed in my stomach and I felt bloated and uncomfortable.

"I never cared when it was meal time. I often went a whole day without eating a bite. I had a pain in my left shoulder that bothered me. I was constipated, too, and my blood was impure.

"In a few weeks after I took my first dose of Pepgen I felt like a different woman. Every mouthful of food tasted good. I wasn't troubled with indigestion or heartburn. When I got through working I wasn't tired out. My nerves were better. I could sleep soundly. I consider Pepgen a splendid tonic and I advise everybody who is in a run down condition to try it. I have gained seven pounds."

Pepgen has relieved hundreds of Decatur people of gas on the stomach, heartburn, bloated feelings, sour stomach, sick headaches, nervousness, pains in the back, and habitual constipation. Why not you?

Pepgen is sold in Decatur only at the Decatur Drug Co. It may also be obtained at one leading drug store in every nearby town which may be known by a Pepgen sign.

POLICE CONTINUE SPEEDERS' WAR

Second Offense to Bring Larger Fine Than First.

The police are still keeping up their war on the speeders, and Thursday the usual number was gathered in. Evidently it is expected that all of the original crop will be harvested and some of the new crop in addition. It is expected that before long the police will be gathering in second offenders, and instead of the fine being $18.40 it may be a great deal more than that. At the present rate the amount of fined will soon enable the department to put on a few more motorcycle officers, and then the justices of the peace probably will have to hold court twenty-four hours a day.

Every time the motorcycle officer goes after a speeder he must speed to catch him, so there are two persons speeding for every one arrested. This adds to the danger of persons on the street.

LATEST ARRESTS.

Darrell Doran, 861 East Prairie; William Barnes, Jr., 131 North Taylor; Joe Deluca, 1935 North Jasper; L. F. Emerick, route 3; Lawrence Thrift, 126 Oakdale; E. C. Sims of Peoria; Dwayne Shartzer, 2502 East Wood; S. D. Moore, 166 Westlawn. Mr. Moore gave bond to appear May 1 before Justice Lloyd. Mr. Sims was to appear Friday. All others were fined $18.40 each by Justice Lloyd.

T. W. Padgett, 835 West Eldorado, was arrested for driving with his cut-out open. He was fined $6.15 by Justice Lloyd.

T. R. Hoffhein of Kansas City was arrested early Friday morning for breaking glass in the street and for being drunk.

FIRST POST V. F. W. IS ABANDONED

Post No. 730 Gives Way to Second Post.

Joel McDavid post No. 730, Veterans of Foreign Wars, passed out of existence Thursday night by vote of the membership. The meeting was held in G. A. R. hall to discuss the advisability of continuing the organization in which most of the members had lost interest, and, following the vote of the post, state commander I. A. Lancaster declared the post disbanded.

The recent organization of a second post of the V. F. W. organization in Decatur is said to have been one of the main reasons for disbanding post No. 730, the first to be organized in Decatur.

OLD BRICK HOUSE MUST COME DOWN

Has Been Held Up By Props for Some Time.

The little old gray brick house at 427 East Prairie, which has been crumbling and falling for a year or more and which has been partly held up by poles and props, is now to be torn down. At least this agreement was reached in Justice H. C. Noble's court Thursday between the owner, Mrs. Anna Jones, and the state fire marshal's department.

The fire marshal, through Deputy James Wyse, has ordered the old house torn down long ago but the owner refused. Efforts to locate her to serve papers on her had failed for many weeks as she could not be found. Eventually she was located; however, and taken into court on a warrant charging her with not complying with the order. Mrs. Jones is said to have a suit pending against the Decatur Coal company, charging the company with being responsible for the condition of the house, which is an old-timer.

PUPILS APPEAR IN PIANO RECITAL

An excellent program of music was given in the piano recital by the pupils of Miss Pauline Myers in the Decatur Musical College Thursday evening. The work of a number of pupils was deserving of special mention. Those taking part were Elizabeth Ann Siegman, Mary Adeline Doherty, Bernice Boose, Norma Shively and Frances Edwin. Two readings were given by Madolyn Pygman and Virginia Hornebry, pupils of Miss Koropp.

$100 TO FIREMEN FOR PENSION FUND

Truck of Furniture from Springfield Burns Near Niantic.

The firemen's pension fund was increased to the extent of $100 Thursday by the receipt of a check for that amount from the Ahrens-Fox Fire Engine company.

The burning truck which caused a run for the pumper from No. 1 fire house to a point on the hard road west of Niantic Thursday afternoon, was not one belonging to the National Grocery company of Decatur as was understood by the firemen over the phone. It was a moving van belonging to Charles Underfanger of Springfield and loaded with household goods on route to Champaign. The truck and load was practically destroyed by the fire.

SAYS ONE SPHINX HAS DISAPPEARED

Dr. I. L. Holt Addresses University Club.

The mystery of the Sphinx was explained by Dr. Ivan Lee Holt of St. Louis when he spoke at the annual dinner of the University club which was given in the Y. W. C. A. Thursday night.

"The Sphinx was one of two statues, half man and half beast such as were always built in front of a temple. The other statue has completely disappeared." It is believed that the likeness of the head of the Spink is that of Khaf-re.

BURIED TREASURES.

"Tut-Ankh-Amen was a minor monarch who reigned but a few months. The treasures found in his tomb are valued at $50,000,000." In explaining the reason for burying treasureres of this value with the dead Dr. Holt explained that the Egyptians believed the immortal souls of the dead returned to their tombs and found delight in the beautiful objects they found there.

In the years between 2500 and 1600 B. C. Egyptian monarchs ceased to build pyramids as burial places but hewed tombs in solid rock.

SHOWS LUXOR VIEWS.

Stereopticon views of the Luxor region were shown as Dr. Holt talked. Seventy members of the club and their guests were present for the dinner. The H. W. Rogers family furnished the music for the evening. Table decorations were pasteboard pyramids, camels and camel drivers and miniature palms. Dr. C. Martin Wood presided.

HIS BROTHER'S WIFE

by RUBY AYRES

STORY HERE TODAY.

The marriage of Dolly and Nigel Brethertons was unhappy one from which Nigel is glad to exhale. He is very fond of his friend, David Rivival. Nigel is killed in action and Dolly, married an old sweetheart, Robert Bellamy, and Robert sail for America, leaving Mary in Dolly's flat. When Nigel's elder brother, David, calls to see Nigel's widow, Mary is ashamed to tell him of Dolly's marriage. David mistakes Mary for his brother's wife and asks her to come to live at Red Grange with him and his aunt and himself. Mary had visited Red Grange for a day with Nigel, during David's absence. She loves the place and longs to go there to live for awhile.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

Just for that one short day spent there with Nigel she had been so happy—so very happy. Even now, though it was three years ago, she had but to close her eyes to see the old house, and the belt of trees, and wonderful sloping lawns.

David held out his hand.

"Write and tell me when you have made up your mind," he said.

Her fingers shook in his kind, friendly grasp. She knew that already she wished to make up her mind. Knew that she would sacrifice anything to go back there, even if just for one day—one week. But she did not tell him so now, and presently he went away, leaving her alone once more.

All day long the torment of what she wanted to do haunted her; she even found herself weighing up the probable chances of discovery. They were so very small.

So few people who had known Nigel as one of the Brethertons of the Red Grange had even known him after his marriage in London. And Dolly had never been a girl to make friends; she had dropped almost entirely out of her own set when she married, in the hope that Nigel's circle would take her up. When she found that such a hope was vain, she had not troubled to create a world of her own.

And now she was on the other side of the world. She might never come back, and even if she did—well, she was no longer Mrs. Nigel Brethertons.

"And I loved him best."

Mary hugged that knowledge tight to her heart when she lay awake at night, torn with conflicting emotions.

She felt as if her heart were fighting her conscience— her heart that longed to go and do this thing, and her conscience which would not let her give in.

CHAPTER XVI.

A Chance Encounter.

She rose, after a sleepless night, with a splitting headache. It was raining and cold; the whole world looked dreary and depressing. It was one of those days when one feels as if the only possible manner of passing the time is by drawing the blinds against the chill, uninviting outside, and banking up a big fire.

But Mary sat down by the window and stared into the street.

Once she began to write a letter to David, but after the first few words she laid down her pen and could not go on.

The paper lay on the table beside her, with its date and "Dear Mr. Bretherton" staring up at her.

What could she say? How could she answer him?

To tell him the truth, of course, was the obvious way, and yet her heart clung achingly to the memory of that one day and the beauties of Red Grange. She must go— she must!

But the miserable indecision continued. She put on her hat and coat, and went out into the wet world. The chill, damp air stung her pale cheeks into a faint flush, and soothed the throbbing of her head.

"I will go—I will!" she told herself, as she retraced her steps.

But when she reached the flat again she knew that she was as undecided as ever.

What to do? What to do?

She ate her lunch without appetite. The little maid hovered anxiously about her.

"You haven't heard from Mrs. Bretherton yet, I suppose, miss?" she asked hesitatingly.

"Yes I have. I thought I told you. She is having a sea trip."

The little girl stared.

"Me, miss! And shall you go, too?"

Mary started.

"I don't know—perhaps. I hope so."

She felt confused and nervous; she was glad when the girl was gone; but the little conversation had shown her how difficult it would be to keep up a subterfuge for any length of time, if even this girl's innocent questioning made her confused and ill at ease.

In the afternoon she tried to read, but thought danced between her and the pages. She threw the book impatiently aside.

Her restlessness drove her again out of doors; she walked on aimlessly, though the wet grayness of closing daylight.

She was surprised at agitation; as a rule she was so self-possessed and quiet; this miserable restlessness frightened her.

It began to rain fast; she had brought no umbrella, and in a few minutes she was drenched.

She boarded a crowded omnibus, and found herself wedged in between a stout woman and a young clerk reading an evening paper.

Mary was cold and chilled to the bone; she found herself shivering, and hoped she was not going to be ill.

When the conductor came for fares she remembered with a frightened start that she had not brought any money. She looked up at him with scared eyes.

"I haven't any money—I'm sorry—I—I must get down."

Mechanically she stepped out into the street, and presently became aware that the young clerk was standing beside her, holding his paper over her head to protect her from the rain.

"I'm very sorry," she said, "I—I have no money with me. I must get down and walk."

"Let me pay for you," he said, and Mary looked at him gratefully.

"Oh, will you? I'll send it back to you—I'm so sorry to trouble you, but I must get down and walk. I have no money with me."

"Please don't worry," he said, and Mary thought how kind his voice was. "I'm only too glad to be able to help you."

He paid the fare, and Mary got down, followed by the young man.

"I'm very grateful to you," she said, "I'll send the money back to you as soon as I get home."

"Please don't worry," he said again. "I'm only too glad to be able to help you."

KIWANIANS IN CLINTON MEETING

To Make Conference Annual Affair.

The Kiwanis division conference held in Clinton Thurday will become an annual spring affair, it was decided during the meeting. The conference was also the second anniversary of the Clinton Kiwanis club. There was a general conference in the afternoon at the Elks club and in the evening the banquet was served at the Association of Commerce rooms. Guests were present from Decatur, Bloomington, Paxton, Springfield and Lincoln. Twenty-six went up from Decatur, being the largest delegation there.

Daniel S. Wentworth, governor of the Illinois-Eastern Iowa district, was present and gave an extremely interesting address. Lieut. Governor K. Kennedy of Bloomington and Dr. H. D. Hammond, district secretary, also gave talks at the banquet.

FINE BANQUET.

Telegrams of congratulation were received from clubs in Aledo, Kewanee, Galesburg and a letter of greeting from President Harras was read. A huge birthday cake bearing two lighted candles was on the table and President R. H. Johnson of the Clinton club invited the two past presidents, Dr. Charles Carter and George B. Marvel to blow out the candles.

The conference in the afternoon centered on extension work, membership and attendance. The Clinton club has a live bunch of members and had made fine arrangements for the conference. One of the interesting incidents of the banquet was the presence of Asa Phelps, formerly a member of the Clinton club and now connected with Kiwanis International. He was presented a pin by the Clinton club and Mr. Phelps in return presented the Clinton club a Kiwanis bell and gavel.

KEEP CHILD WELL SAYS DR. BALL

Heard By Good Crowd At High School.

The advantages of keeping the well child well, was the theme of a very excellent address, Thursday evening, given by Dr. Elizabeth E. Ball, of the division of child hygiene of the state department of public health at Springfield. Dr. Ball came to Decatur as a part of the Better Health week, and spoke in the high school auditorium to a good crowd at a special meeting arranged by the committee composed of Miss Neva E. Woods and Miss Gunhild Johnson, who conferred with the University of Illinois.

Dr. Ball spoke of health as the most important physical part in a child's life and emphasized the importance of diet, hygiene, exercise and other safe guards which make and keep children strong and healthy.

REMEDY DEFECTS.

The speaker paid attention to the defects that can be remedied and told of the many people in the world who might have reached higher places had these defects been remedied in youth. The importance of the kind of food was shown in contrast to the quantity.

The Parent-Teachers association of Decatur was complimented by Dr. Ball upon its foresight in furnishing milk to pupils cutting down the average of undernourished children.

GIVE TWO PLAYS.

Two little plays were a part of the program. "Merry Microbes" was given by the pupils of the fourth grade at Oglesby school, illustrating why colds should be cared for and how they can spread.

The second little play was given by the pupils of the sixth grade at the Roach school. "From Danger Valley to Safety Hill," in which the child struggles toward health, helped by the right agencies and pulled back by coffee, candy and other bad foods. The children entered so heartily into these plays and showed so plainly their understanding of the subjects that the audience was delighted.

Children of the sixth and seventh grades of the E. A. Gastman school gave several health songs which closed an enjoyable and instructive evening.

HUMANE SOCIETY AFTER MEMBERS

To Put On Drive In County In Near Future.

Mrs. Julia Bugh is the chairman of the committee for the membership drive which the Humane society expects to put on in Decatur and Macon county in the near future. Mrs. Bugh is now at work on the plans and it is believed that they will result in adding many names to the membership list.

The plans for a shelter of some kind were discussed in the meeting of the Humane society board, in the Y. W. C. A., Thursday afternoon. No definite arrangements have been made for securing this shelter but the society realizes that dogs and other animals need something of the kind.

The board decided to hold four meetings a year to which the public will be given special invitation. All meetings of the board are open but these meetings will be special ones, and the first of them will be held sometime in June.

DEATHS

HENRY WATFORD.

Henry Watford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Watford, died at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the family residence, 540 North Witt street. He would have been seventeen years old in July. His death was caused by tuberculosis.

The young man was born in Brownsville, Tenn., July 29, 1907. He has been living in Decatur since a year ago last February. Beside his parents he leaves the following brothers and sisters: John and Nelson Watford, Jr., Mrs. Millie B. Bradford, Mary Eliza Watford and Dellie Watford, all of Decatur.

The body was removed to the Dawson & Wikoff undertaking establishment and prepared for burial and will be taken to Brownsville, Tenn., where the funeral will be held.

TOM M'CLELLAN VISITS DECATUR

Was Once Popular High School Athlete.

Tom McClellan of Chicago was in Decatur Thursday for the first time in about fifteen years. He was born and reared in Decatur and was one of the best known high school athletes in his young days. About twenty-five years ago he and Walter Smock started for the Klondike. They never reached there, but they traveled extensively in the north and west. Walter Smock was drowned, and as Tom McClelland was known to have been with him, it was supposed that he, too, had been drowned, though the body was never recovered.

Some time afterward, when a list of high school students who had been awarded D's was published, Tom McClellan's name appeared in the list of those who had passed beyond. It was a long time before the fact that he was still alive was known to his Decatur friends. One day a Decatur girl who had gone to school with him met him on the street in Chicago. She happened to have in her purse the published list of Decatur high school D's, with his name among the dead, and she showed it to him and he immediately came to life.

Mr. McClellan is married and has two daughters. They live in Chicago, where Mr. McClellan is in the employe of the Wisconsin Cement Products company. He met Steve Wood, Ned Wood and a number of other old friends during his brief stay in Decatur. He expects to return again in about two weeks.

WEEK OF MUSIC AT LAWRENCE, KANSAS

D. M. Swarthout Chorus to Sing.

How a May music festival has developed into a solid week of music in many forms and given in many places in that city is shown in a folder which Donald M. Swarthout, formerly of the Millikin conservatory of music, but now with the University of Kansas, at Lawrence, Kan., has sent to Decatur friends.

The music week at Lawrence begins next Sunday and musical events of note are given every day until the following Saturday night. The events include a Sunday afternoon concert by the University of Kansas Women's Glee club, a concert on Monday night by the university band followed by the production of Henry Hadley's operetta, "The Fire Prince" by the high school glee clubs on Monday night, two concerts by the St. Louis Symphony orchestra on Tuesday afternoon and night, a concert by the University Men's Glee club Wednesday night, a song festival by the grade children Thursday afternoon, the singing of Handel's "Messiah" Friday night by a chorus of 400 voices under the direction of Mr. Swarthout and concerts by the Haskell Institute band and orchestra Saturday afternoon and night.

Special musical programs are also to be given at the noon meetings of the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs and there will be programs at the various hospitals.

SO CHARLES BECKER SAID.

Commissioner Philip Kayser says the completion of the Lakeside drive in Decatur is "our job." A good many will guess he is right in this, at least on the theory that it has ceased to be another fellow's job.

There was a time when Charles Becker was on this job; then we interposed with a special election and he construed this to mean he had lost that little job. If Mr. Becker says the matter has been taken out of his jurisdiction, that is about what has happened; for in this he is the court with the "last guess." Nothing is to be gained by going up against a situation like this.

If the drive is completed, it will be by the city or by some within the city. In this sense it is clearly "our job," as Commissioner Kayser says.

This does not mean the job must be completed this year, though it would be a comfort and a delight to many to have this done. There is mention by Mayor Elder of waiting until taxes are collected from that piece of new territory taken into the city. If by this is meant there is to be a wait until the collected taxes are sufficient to make up the $4,000 needed to complete the drive, it is plain this is something that will not be done while we wait.

Mr. Becker remarked this situation a few weeks since, and he mentioned it as something that will plague us more than a little before we are done with it. He will be setting up shop as a prophet.

THE LAST OF THE KIND.

Mr. Coleman in "The Story of Decatur" tells us about the late Frank W. Haines, who was "chief amusement purveyor for the people of Decatur for twenty-seven years. The story goes on to tell that he died in the year 1900.

That was about twenty-four years ago, and we can hardly bring ourselves to believe he has been gone that long. But that is the way it is told in the record, so it will have to be accepted.

It seems not more than a dozen years since Frank Haines quit us. The only explanation is that when here he made a livelier impression on us than was suspected.

And it was realized all along that Mr. Haines was making a real impression. He was the last of our theatrical managers who himself waited in person on all the trade. If one went at all to the opera house in Frank's days, his name was put on the list of patrons of the art, and there it stayed until the patron went on to his everlasting reward.

Frank Haines took all the patrons into the business, invited them behind the scenes, as it were, and let them see the wheels go round. He consulted them about attractions that were coming, left with them an impression they were taking the biggest part in providing their entertainment. It was a big undertaking to keep all patrons on the board of directors, but Frank Haines was not the man to tire in this line of work.

So far as we know, taking the country as a whole, he was the last of that line of managers. His reward should be big.

STILL HITTING ON SIX.

The correspondent at Clinton is kind enough to invite our attention to Hon. Vespasian Warner, who is still going strong in his way in that lively little city.

"Push," as people of a decade ago called him, is now 11 years old. But he stands erect and there is vigor about the man. It is true he is building an elevator in his home to carry him to and from the second floor, but then he never was very strong for walking.

It is told that the gentleman is still outgoing. We who knew him better than and twenty years ago can readily believe this. In those days he was a good story teller, a connoisseur of that old school where they made real artists in this line.

This is a kind of talent that is likely to stay with a man to the end of his days, and it helps him to enjoy life. These stories for the most part have to do with people who lived in the past, but for the artist in telling they are people who live now.

Pash Warner still stands as straight as an Indian, and we have have no doubt he continues to eat well and heartily. Into all of this he mixes the reminiscences that have come up during a long and busy life, and this is artistic work.

We don't know of anything that helps more in keeping one young, all the while contributing to the joy of others.

THEY KNOW THE COUNTRY.

Editors and publishers met in New York this week, and part of their entertainment was an address by President Coolidge.

An observer remarks there were no signs of political partisanship in that meeting. The president mentioned certain economic policies that appeal to him; and they also appealed to the editors and publishers. The gathering was with President Coolidge in his view and presentation of the situation in the country and in the world.

In fact about the matters discussed in the president's address there was little room for partisanship, as the term was understood only a short while since. Mr. Coolidge was for lightening the tax burden of the country, and he proposed to do this by keeping down appropriations.

This isn't a partisan matter; it should make similar appeal to a man whether he is Democrat or Republican. Both men have exactly the same interest in the subject, and in considering it they must forget politics if they are to serve themselves.

A point it is wished to make is that the editors and publishers present were from all parts of the country, and yet they were practically of one mind in this matter. Further than this, it may be said they were at least fairly representative of the sentiment in the communities from which they came, from the country.

We wonder why congress can't be equally representative. But there is more "practical politics" in congress, enough to explain the difference.

WITH WHAT WE CAN GET.

A little while ago the Literary Digest conducted a ballot vote into which entered the Mellon tax reduction plan, the bonus, and possibly something more along the same line.

The publishers were most anxious to distribute the ballots in a way that would best insure getting at the real sentiment of the country. They have had experience in this kind of work, and they must by now be pretty good men at it.

That ballot showed an overwhelming sentiment in favor of Mr. Mellon's plan of tax reduction, even after it was explained that to adopt the plan meant to pass up the bonus.

And now what is the answer of congress? It has put through some kind of bonus—one it is said we can charge to posterity—and so far has done nothing with tax reduction. And if the body should do something about taxes, it will not be the Mellon plan.

We take it that congressmen and senators didn't pay much attention to the vote held by the Literary Digest. Probably this was on the theory that the folks who did that voting will put up with what they get if they can't have what they want.

And possibly there was a little feeling that some others will not put up with what they can get. It may be that congress has exercised at least temporary shrewdness in sizing up the situation.

AND RAISED ON BANQUETS.

They keep on telling us that Chauncey Depew at the age of 90 is still a chipper fellow who is interested in life and savors all of it. Perhaps in this way he is the remarkable man of the age.

And there is much about his story that confuses us. Most of us have read about rules and practices and habits of activity that may be depended on to lead to a hale old age, but we can't learn these have ever made much appeal to Mr. Depew.

For instance, it is said that banquets are not good for us, that is when indulged immoderately. At these feasts there is a richness of food and a lateness of hours that sometimes gets called "burning the candle at both ends."

And if in all the world there is one who may be said to have been raised on banquets, Chauncey Depew is the fellow. Joe Cannon of Danville is another who partook of many in his time, and he is with us. His case is not as remarkable as Depew's, but Cannon is a pretty good runner-up.

It must be there are always exceptions to the rules we have read.

INVITES ANOTHER SESSION.

Judge Gary's steel corporation had many workmen who put in twelve hours a day. We remonstrated with him about this, and finally he was compelled to break up that system.

This week Judge Gary told stockholders of his big corporation that this change in the system adds $35,000,000 a year to the cost of carrying on the business.

We feel quite sure that in saying this Judge Gary is inviting further remonstrance and protest. We have with us people who insist that cutting the day's length also reduces the cost of doing business, that it is the economical thing. We think the Judge is in for a large and distressful session.

We Democrats may have a woman as keynoter at our New York convention—and generally speaking, the ladies will find we are better company.

Of course they understand it is only fair to pick a salutatorian in time to let him think about the matter of his impromptu address.

Some of the city commissioners are getting ready to ask for a larger appropriation; but often there is disappointment along this line.

The moral hazard of insuring some in Chicago is just a little more than even Lloyd's cares to take on in a campaign year.

Again they have put the town of Buffalo on M. L. Harry's list—and he will remember just where to find it.

However, it is an old story that big talk about good fishing isn't calculated to secure attendance at business meetings.

It can't be that this Jona Borden who is up for speeding is the same man who got all his early training on slow-going busses.

Oklahoma has instructed 25 delegates for Coolidge; and isn't this a state somewhere out in Hiram's neighborhood?

They have started a fight on Cousens in Michigan, and in the first chapter they begin to talk about "political traitors."

We are to have another filling station in town, and just how many does this make to a car?

The only way to avoid that May 1 penalty is to step up and pay the taxes before the zero hour strikes.

LITTLE JOE

The Story Of Decatur

By E. T. Coleman

CHAPTER 145.

GRAND OLD MEN.

First Settlers of Friends Creek Were the Salt of the Earth—All the Good Ones Cannot Be Listed In Detail.

One of the pleasures of writing these chapters of the Story of Decatur is the opportunity it affords of renewing one's acquaintance with those first settlers of Macon county. They bear acquaintance well. Indeed one's admiration for them grows with acquaintance. They were men of force and character and probity. It was not so merely of isolated individuals or of any particular neighborhood, or of any particular race or creed. They were all good men, practically without exception, and one feels at this late day he should take off his hat to their memories.

"I wish, when you have time to do it, that you would write about that bunch of old fellows about Newberg and Argenta," said a man about town the other day. The speaker was himself the son of one of those men and he is now beyond middle age.

He continued, his brief eulogy: "They were grand old sires. They were real men. They raised large families and fine families.

A NOTABLE LIST.

"To particularize there were William Dickey, Archer Van Leer, D. M. Adams, Dr. R. F. Carr, Billy Clifton, Aaron Bricker, Squire Long, John Marsh, Frank McMillan, a blacksmith and a man of fine character, Mackie Taylor, D. K. Wilson, Jesse Hanks, Nels Madden, Enoch Hankins, Louis Heinle and others. This list, named off hand, I am sure is not complete. But it will serve to recall to many of the older persons today those fine old men of an earlier generation. They all lived within a radius of two or three miles of Argenta and Newberg."

HAD NO MONOPOLY.

He is right in his estimate of the character and quality of these men. But Argenta and Newberg had no monopoly of them. It would be easy to compile a list of a hundred, probably 200 such men in Macon county, each of whose lives furnishes material for an epic. Quite a number of them have been mentioned in this story of Decatur, but one has to restrain himself to keep from trying to mention all of them. Did the times make those men or were they the pick of the civilization of the Atlantic states? One wonders.

IN FURTHER DETAIL.

It may be profitable to mention further some of the men in this Newberg-Argenta community. It will be impossible to speak in detail of all of them.

William Dickey, the grandfather of the man who heads the above group, settled in Friends Creek township in 1828, one year before the organization of the county, and was therefore one of the very early pioneers. He was born in Alabama and came to Illinois by way of Kentucky. His son, John Dickey, came with his father, died while on a trip to Chicago with a load of produce. His body was found in the road with his team standing near by. The date of his death was Oct. 22, 1846.

A REAL PIONEER.

William Dickey, the son of John Dickey, was born in Kentucky in 1814 and must have been fourteen years old when he came to Illinois with his father and grandfather. He is remembered as the man who laid out the town of Murfreesboro on the Sangamon river in 1836. The town was established on the stage route from Decatur to Monticello and the change in route sounded the knell of that ambitious project.

William Dickey also laid out the town of Newberg in 1854 and this he saw grow into a prosperous village. It is a beautiful town site on the bank of Friends Creek, but when the railroad was built, missing Newberg by a mile, that village died and Argenta was born.

William Dickey was twice married. By the first marriage there were six children, two of whom lost their lives in the Civil War. By the second marriage there were nine children.

Mr. Dickey was an active member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and was for forty years an elder. In his locality he was a man of much influence which he always exercised for the good of the community.

ROBERT F. CARR COMES.

Dr. R. F. Carr was born in Sussex county, N. J., May 13, 1832. He was English on his father's side and his mother's people were Irish. He graduated from the Albany medical college in 1855, came to Illinois in 1856 and began the practice of medicine in Friends Creek township. He established himself first in the village of Newberg and after Argenta was established he moved to that village.

Dr. Carr was one of the men who gave character to the community. In his youth he met with an accident which made him a cripple for life, and it was this which led him to choose a profession. His characteristics were industry, economy and indomitable will. Lured, doubtless, by the prospect of an easier practice in a larger town, he moved to Decatur in 1866 but after remaining here three years he returned to Argenta. He married Emily Smick April 8, 1858. There was a family of seven children all of whom were a credit to the community.

FARMER AND STOCK RAISER.

John Marsh was of Irish stock and was born in Warren county, Ohio, in 1823. He was a pump maker by trade, boring pump stocks from solid timber by hand. He made a pump for Abraham Lincoln and once when he was twenty years of age made a trip to New Orleans by steamboat as a journeyman. He came to Illinois in 1855, became a farmer and stock-raiser and accumulated 800 acres of fine land. He married Henrietta Sherman and raised a family of nine children.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN.

William Clifton was a veteran of the Mexican war. He was born in Casey county, Ky., Sept. 13, 1819. He was mostly self-educated. He came to Illinois in 1864 and bought 160 acres in Friends Creek township. He was twice married and had six children. He was a Democrat, a Presbyterian and his first vote was cast for President Jackson.

ALL GOOD MEN.

David M. Adams was born in Center county, Pa., Nov. 8, 1822. He was of English stock, had a limited education but was a great reader. He located in Friends Creek township and became an extensive farmer and stockraiser. He married Mary E. Hankins in 1860. There were six children. He was a Whig, a member of the Christian church. His first presidential vote was for Henry Clay.

The Van Leers were originally Hollanders, the family emigrating to America in 1697. The great-grandmother was a relative of General Anthony Wayne.

Enoch Hankins was a native of Ohio. He came to Illinois in the fall of 1862 and settled in Friends Creek township. He married Susan McFadden and had nine children, four sons and five daughters. He died in 1865.

These are but a few of that Newberg-Argenta group, frankly selected because their biographies are easily available. Every one in the list is worth an entire chapter in this record.

Just Folks

THE RICH MAN'S FUNERAL SERMON.

We had talked in life of his rise to power
And the earthly riches which he possessed.
But now we stood in the last brief hour
When the tired body is laid to rest.

And the minister, clad in his surplice white,
Stood at his bier, as our heads were bowed,
And he talked of the soul which had taken flight
And the things of which always the soul is proud.

And he never mentioned the gold he'd made,
Or the countless men that his wealth employed,
Or the place he'd reached in the world of trade,
But only the things which the soul enjoyed.

And we never had guessed as we heard him there,
That a rich man slept in the silent hall;
For the last brief words and the last brief prayer
Only the worth of the heart recall.

The purse for the living must play its part,
But always at last, when the soul is gone,
We give our praise to the gentle heart
That loved and was loved and has journeyed on.

Little Benny's Notebook

I was setting on my front steps Saturday morning and Leroy Shoesteel came up saying, Me and Sid Hunt was jest tawking about you a little while ago.

Why, wat about, wat? I sed.

Sid sed he could lick you without half trying, Leroy sed.

O is that so, well you cen jest tell him I can lick him any day and it would be the easiest thing I did that day, I sed.

Well, if I see him I'll tell him, I ixpect to see him, Leroy said.

Him being one of these, guys allways trying to start fites as long as they dont haff to be in them, and in the aftirnoon I was going up the alley to clime the back fents for suppir and who came out of his gate but Sid Hunt, saying, Hay, I herd you sed you could lick me any day, is that true?

Well I herd you sed you could lick me with one hand behind your back, is that true? I sed.

I asked you a question ferst, Sid sed. Do you admit you told somebody you could lick me? he sed.

Ill tell you after you anser me, I sed. Do you admit you bragged you can lick me? I sed.

And we stood there looking tuff at each other, me pushing my face into his face and him pushing his into mine, Sid saying, Well, how about it, do you admit it or dont you?

Thats all rite weather I do or not, its a darn good thing you wont admit it, because somebody would be waking up in the hospittle and it wouldent be me, either, I sed.

And its a heck of a lucky thing you wont admit, because thats the ony thing that proberly saved your life, Sid sed.

And he kepp on going down the alley and I climbed over our back fents for suppir, being Irish stew and Frentch fried potatoes.

About Town

A TRUE Decatur story:

"Oh, mother," said little Mary, jumping with joy, "The A. class is ahead of the B class in school."

"That's fine, Mary. I'm glad your class is ahead. How did you do it? By better attendance, better deportment, better recitations—or what?"

"No, Mother," was Mary's reply. "It's because there are more glasses in the A class than in the B class."

CHURCHES TO TAKE STAND UPON WAR

Small Groups Have Already Argued Question.

BY OWEN L. SCOTT.

(Copyright, 1924)

Chicago, April 25.—War—whether it should be condoned under some conditions or condemned no matter what the circumstances—is a problem now bothering churchmen of the country, much as the controversy between fundamentalists and modernists did earlier in the year.

Three great denominations, Methodist, Episcopal and Presbyterian, will wrestle with the question during the next month at their national conferences. Smaller groups already have come to grips—their activities focused in Chicago—and so far the pacifists each time have emerged at the long end of the vote.

THEIR ARGUMENT.

They think that the church should wage a war on war; that it should never again bless any military conflict or call it holy; that all the religious forces of the country should drive against the forces that make for international disturbances until peace is assured for all time.

The whole controversy between the anti-militarists and their equally staunch opponents within the church, who maintain that they should reserve judgment on war, using the influence of religion where it can best serve its purpose, recently burst into the open. It had smouldered along until 38 Northwestern University students pledged themselves never to take up arms for their country and then found themselves the object of considerable newspaper attention.

EPWORTH MEETING.

This action, followed by a meeting of the Evanston Epworth League addressed by a draft evader, at which the flag was said to have been hissed, accentuated the issue.

Then came meetings of local clergy and actions that assure consideration of the whole problem of war and peace by the national church assemblies.

TRAIN OPERATES ON MILK DIET!

Chicago, April 25—Burning milk as its fuel, a Rock Island railroad locomotive made a two-hour trip Thursday drawing five cars with two hundred passengers. The milk-fed train went from Englewood to Beverly Hills, and back, while 150 children passengers from the Chicago Home for Friendless Children and the Chicago Orphan Asylum, pressed their faces against the car windows and cheered the retreating telegraph poles.

Damaged powdered milk was thickened with water and broken into lumps for fuel.

FEAR WIDESPREAD STRIKE IN CUBA

Ambassador Crowder Is Alarmed Over Conditions.

Washington, April 25—In a report to the State Department, Ambassador Crowder declared it was not impossible that the strike in Cuba, in view of recent difficulties on several railroad lines, might spread to the railroads, and the situation assume alarming proportions.

The strike, which was begun April 8 by longshoremen, and dock laborers, the report said, had spread to truck drivers, streetcar employes, cigar workers, taxi drivers, typesetters, and iron and marble workers, more than 30,000 of whom have joined in a sympathetic movement with the longshoremen.

CLOSED SHOP.

The cause was said to be due, primarily, to the insistence of the longshoremen's union to closed shop policies, based on the presidential decree of 1920, but which the employers claim, had been forfeited by the strike in 1921.

Transportation in the city of Havana, had been completely paralyzed.

MACDONALD CHEERS AMERICAN PRESS

New York, April 25—The American press is an important instrument in the development of mutual understanding between the American and British peoples, and it has fulfilled this mission with fairness, friendliness, and thoroughness, Prime Minister Macdonald of Great Britain Thursday night told the American Newspaper Publishers' association through Sir Esmo Howard, the British ambassador, who addressed the annual dinner.

Heals Sore Gums Teeth Tighten

You are forever reading about dozens of things that will prevent pyorrhea—but if you've got it, what you want to know is how to get rid of it.

Well, here's some good news for you.

Get a six-ounce bottle of Jo-Vex—use it as directed for just two minutes a day. After the fourth day watch those spongy gums harden and stop bleeding; notice those wabbly teeth tighten up. Then keep on until your gums are strong and healthy and teeth firmly in place. It's great stuff—not very pleasant—but it does end pyorrhea—it hasn't failed yet. Guaranteed by Decatur Drug Company, E. W. Armstrong, E. A. West and druggists everywhere.

Irelan to Cut Down Commie Squad Monday

Several Outfielders and Pitchers Slated to Be Turned Loose At That Time.

BY HOWARD V. MILLARD.

With the opening of the Three Eye league race only a few days off, Manager Harold Irelan of the Decatur Commies must give his recruits the final once over in the Kalamazoo series which opens at Staley Field today.

After those contests are played the local skipper will turn loose several ball players now in camp who are not ready for the class of ball as displayed in the Three Eye loop.

Only one extra infielder is on the job at this time in the person of Swenson, so that it is an easy matter to see that pitchers and outfielders are the ones who will furnish the cutting material.

THE OUTFIELDERS.

Four outfielders now graze the local pasture but it is expected that another one will join the club before the season opens in which case two will have to be turned adrift. It appears that Calbert and Shaner will be in the gardens at Terre Haute when the season opens so that Cowboy Jones and Williams are to be the ones. Jones was sent here by Mobile with a fine boost but the tall boy is handicapped by the fact he has never had any league experience and the Three Eye is a pretty fast loop for an outfielder of that type.

Williams, built more like an infielder than an outfielder, has shown plenty of speed in the drills here but it is absolutely necesary that the Commies have an outfielder with a punch of the Calbert-Shanor type.

THE HURLERS.

At the present time nine hurlers are present in Sullivan, Kotzelnick, Daniels, Davis, Fort, Wells, Bonnely, Wells and Vondrashek while Jim Duchalsky is on a train speeding toward Decatur. It is not thought that Irelan will carry more than seven or eight until the player limit must be reached on May 15, in which case two, and possibly three will be released Monday.

The fans have not had a chance to look Bonnely over as yet but he is sure to draw work in the Kalamazoo games as will most all the rest of the chuckers. In the batting practice Thursday the Kansas City recruit showed a fine side arm fast ball but appeared wild. He probably hasn't seen as much work as is necessary for control at this early date.

SHANER IMPROVES.

One of the pleasing things of the drills the last few days is the way Shaner, the "Jack Dempsey" of the squad has been slapping the agate. He has been going up there to the plate with a determination to connect and said Mr. Baseball has been taking some nice rides as a result.

Shaner hit 310 in a class A league last season and if he bears down all the time has a very good chance of being one of the most powerful stickers in the loop. He sure has all the car marks at least.

BAIT FOR BUGS

By H. V. Millard

Simply Review methods that is all. Several days ago Bert Whitsett, advertising manager of the Review, took sixty dollars worth of baseball show tickets to dispose of among the Review family. Bert sold all his tickets, but in disposing of one was forced to guarantee the purchaser he would absolutely win one of the season tickets to be given away by the Fans' Association.

Mr. Dean Turley of The Review advertising department was the young man who drew the season pass Thursday evening.

Three of the cast, Nigel Larson, Bob Parracks and Otto Kyle are members of The Review editorial department, so the second floor is not ready to admit any superiority on the part of Bert Whitsitt and his first floor crew.

The fans at the show Thursday night had a chance to peep skipper Irelan out of a baseball uniform. He did the drawing with Bill Ferguson assisting. Col. Rucker was the announcer and turned out a very fine job of it.

That fellow Herb Heil sure did his stuff Thursday night and if he ever desires to get out of the jewelry business shouldn't have any trouble finding occupation behind the foot lights. The show was easiest the best home talent production ever staged in Decatur and you don't have to be a critic to discover it.

That girl with the pink cheeks. You know, the one who had all the spunk. She made a hit with the Commies who were at the show and one time when it looked like Otto Kyle was going to get rough with her, big Ernie Calbert started to go up on the stage. Harry Brant and Jim Sullivan had a hard time keeping Cal in his seat.

According to word from the Lincoln Square Theater this morning there were hundreds of good seats to be had for the final performance tonight. It was also stated that indications pointed to the baseball show doing about one-half the business of the show staged by the Lions club. Come on you fans.

Horatiox Hoots, former Bloomer slinger who held out for a few days after being informed by Wichita Falls that he was to return to Bloomington, has reported at last.

Peoria Journal: "Charley Goelzer, president of the Bloomington club, was in Peoria yesterday. Goelzer has business interests in this city. Gnelzer looks for a big year in the IH and is confident that Bloomington will win out. The last gun was fired in Bloomington's drive when Horatio Hoots was secured for the Bloomers."

"Phil Collins of the Bloomington ball club, was in our city the other day. Phil said he was sorry that he hadn't been sent to Peoria, as he had always liked Peoria. Well, Phil, there are many others that have felt the same way. We can't have all the athletes here, much as we would like to. The other boys have got to have some of the good ones."

"Ted Menze with Kansas City and Mandy Brocks with Columbus, are riding high and dry on the bench, and there is not much chance for either to break in, judging from the caliber of men who are playing in the two outfields. Menze has written letters to friends here indicating that both he and Brooks would be happy to return to the Tractors. We could sure use a few of Mandy's base knocks."

The Gridley relay carnival which was scheduled to be staged today in the McLean county town, has been postponed until Monday owing to the death of Lyle Kehr. He is a senior this year but not competing on the track team.

The team which Joe Dunn will pilot in the Three Eye League this year will bear no resemblance to the one which John Nee had last year at Evansville. Shag Thompson, Pete Hughes and Catcher Fuhrman are about all that is left of that machine. Roy Whitcraft at Terre Haute will also have pretty much of a strange outfit.

Says Ralph White in the Terre Hauto Tribune:

"Already the "bugs" are figuring out or rather trying to dope out the starting pitcher against Decatur in the Three-I league opener, at Athletic park, Tuesday afternoon.

"Some think Kraft, a right hander, will get the call, while others lean to a southpaw.

"Manager Roy Whitcraft, who will make the selection, isn't talking. He won't either, until the day before. In fact, perhaps not until a few minutes before the first ball is tossed plateward.

"Kraft is fit. He has a beautiful curve ball and blinding speed. Reed is another who has his curve breaking nicely. Lance Utt is still bothered with a sore salary whip, but he is confident he will be ready by opening day.

"Lefty" Miller is much improved, having knocked his attack of the flu sky high, and may be set for the inaugural. Another lefty who may face the barrier Tuesday is George Heir, with the Tots two seasons ago.

"Guesses as to the initial twirler will come and go, but until Boss Roy has spoken the fans will be up in the air. So I'm not one who will seek to act as a prophet."

The ePoria officials have decided to start their "at home" games at three o'clock this season instead of 3:30 which has been the usual time.

The Heil & McClinan's bowling team will go to Chicago and Milwaukee this week end. Jack Minton, H. Frahlman, W. McIntyre, A. Baer, W. Doherty and Herb Heil will make the trip.

BREAK HIS ARM.

Cincinnati, April 24—Rube Benton, of the Cincinnati Reds, did not know he had a broken finger on his pitching hand until the X-ray disclosed the fact recently. The digit has been sore ever since it was struck by a batted ball during the southern training trip.

Since the team came north Benton has pitched four-hit victories over the Detroit Tigers and the Chicago Cubs.

Fred Young of the Bloomington Pantagraph has found it necessary to pep up the fans. Several have started to weaken before the gong rings. He says.

"Some of the fans who turned out for yesterday's practice exhibition between the Bloomers and Wesleyan left Fans field in a decidedly dejected frame of mind. Already they saw their pennant hopes go glimmering, their club a failure, etc.

There is no getting away from the cold facts—the Bloomers did look "bad" yesterday, but that does not mean a thing. Every club has those kinds of days, and it is well that the Bloomers get this out of their systems before the gong rings.

There is every reason to believe that Pat Harking is going to give us a fine ball club this year. The outfield apparently has the necessary hitting strength, the infield looks good, or will look good when Bill Bribeck gets back in the lineup, and the pitching staff looks like the very best string of twirlers that have ever started a championship race here.

Collins and Mels were among the league's leaders a year ago. Johnny Fitzpatrick appears to be in grand shape again. Clarence Hoots will be good for lots of wins, and so on down the string.

Nothing to get gloomy about in that lineup. They should come thru."

The Deland High School invitational meet will be staged tomorrow afternoon with 12 prep teams entered. Childs, former star at that place, and Harold Osborne are scheduled to stage exhibitions. The following schools are entered: Maroa, Atwood, Monticello, Leroy, Wapella, Mt. Pulaski, Farmer City, Mahomet, Bement, Bellflower, Argenta and Deland.

KARA SEA BOASTS LONELIEST OUTPOST

Leningrad—(A—What is said to be the most lonesome outpost in the world for human beings has been set up at Karsk on the Kara sea, an arm of the Arctic, in the form of a wireless and hydro-meteorological station. The Kara sea is blocked by ice the greater part of the year, being possible for ships during only a few weeks in summer.

BLOOMERS RALLY TO TRIM WESLEYAN NINE

Bloomington, Ill., April 25—Illinois Wesleyan again proved to be a hard foe for the Bloomington Three-Eye club to defeat here Thursday, by a 13 to 8 count. With the score knotted at eight all in the eighth Captain Imig of the collegians, yanked himself out of the ball game after several arguments with the umpire and Anderson and Golden, both freshmen hurlers, paved the way for five runs.

Leland Dunham poled two doubles while Bill Traeger, the former Peoria High star connected for a triple in one time up. Stewart and Briese were the only Bloomers to get more than one hit.

Pratt Hasn't Slowed Up Ty Cobb's Tigers

Cobb Also Getting Good Hurling—Cole Is Only Pitcher Who Has Lost Games.

BY JOHN B. FOSTER.
(Copyright 1924.)

New York, April 25 — When Ty Cobb announced down in Augusta, Ga., a little over two weeks ago that he was going to start Pratt at second base and "stand on his success or failure." A lot of critics tried to read the Detroit Americans out of the pennant race. Pratt was put down as a failure before he started, and the critics declared he would hold the Tigers at the bottom of the list.

But if Pratt is dead to baseball, as the critics proclaimed, it can't be ascertained from the record either of Pratt or of the Tigers so far. Detroit has pushed its way to the top of the league. It had to play Cleveland and St. Louis to get there—but it got there.

IS NOT FLASHY.

In seven games, Pratt has accepted 45 chances, an average of more than six per game. That isn't terrific fielding but it isn't bad. He batted .227, which also is not terrific. But he hasn't dragged the Tigers down so that anyone can notice it.

Oxford quartet which captured the sprint medley relay last year.

Eric Liddell, Edinburgh University, British sprint champion will meet some of the greatest sprinters in this country in the 220 yard dash including Bowman of Syracuse; Clarke of Johns Hopkins; Argue of Occidental and Gray of Butler.

Second in interest to the international races was the pentathlon, or all around championship. All the contestants in this are aspirants for the American Olympic team.

This year's carnival attracted the largest number of competitors in its history, the list of colleges and schools representing every section of the country. More than 4,000 athletes from 656 institutions were entered in the 93 events comprising the two day program.

FOREIGN STARS IN PENN CLASSIC

England and Scotland Vie with Yank Athletes.

Philadelphia, April 25.—England and Scotland matched speed today with some of America's fleetest runners in two of the feature events on the opening day's program of the University of Pennsylvania's 30th annual relay carnival at Franklin field. Cambridge University has a combination considered faster than the DOUBS-WHITEHILL.

In addition to the good work of his team in the field, Cobb has been getting good pitching. Dauss has won twice for him and so has Whitehill. The latter is the young lefthander who began at the tail end of the 1923 season with a sensationally pitched victory for Detroit. He looked good at Augusta this spring and he still looks good. If Detroit wins the championship, Whitehill probably will be a big factor in the triumph.

The only two games lost by Detroit so far were lost by Cole, who was expected to be one of the sensational stars of 1924. The fact that he lost his first start doesn't prove at all that he will not be a star.

COBB NOT THROUGH.

The veteran Cobb showed that he is far from being a has-been in the last game of the St. Louis series. He had eight put outs in center field—as many as George Sisler had at first base for St. Louis. Cobb will keep going until his legs tighten up on him, and even then he probably will go on on sheer nerve, unless by that time he has won a championship. Ty earnestly yearns to win one and has made a sort of compact with himself that he won't quit until he does.

The St. Louis Browns, who were put down as the "roving deuces" of the American League, are roving a long ways from home just now. They will have to develop a lot more fight than they have shown if they are to win themselves any sort of place in the flag race.

2,000 ATHLETES IN DRAKE RELAYS

15th Annual Event Draws Great Entry List.

Des Moines, Ia., April 25—(AP)—Their final workouts completed, more than 2,000 athletes representing twenty-five universities and forty-five colleges and more than 100 high schools of Iowa and nearby states, today awaited the starter's gun proclaiming the opening of the fifteenth annual Drake relays.

Thirty track and field events are scheduled for today. Special events will be the 100-yard dash, in which Charles Paddock, University of Southern California star, running against a picked field, will attempt to lower his world's record of 9 3-10 seconds, and the highjump with Osborn, formerly of the University of Illinois, and Brown, former Dartmouth student star, striving to beat the world's record of six feet 7 5-16 inches.

Fielding H. Yost, athletic director of the University of Michigan, will act as referee at the meet, while J. L. Griffith, founder of the relays and present athletic commissioner of the Western Conference, will act as official starter.

The relays continue through tomorrow.

TRACTORS SIGN NEW SHORTSTOP

Rookie Not Strong Enough for Three Eye.

BY FRED W. TURK.

Peoria, Ill., April 25.—A problem which has caused Peoria ball fans considerable worry of late was solved today when Manager Dick Breen received a wire from the Des Moines club officials informing him that Shortstop Nelson has been ordered to report to the Tractors and would probably be here in time to play in the first of the four-game series with Dan O'Leary's Flint club this afternoon.

While Paddy Kingston appears to be a mighty good little ball player he seems to lack the bunch required to make the Three I league hill. Nelson is a shortstop of experience and Breen didn't permit the chance to get him slip by.

Des Moines had two shortstops in camp this spring and was forced to release Nelson in order to get under the player limit.

HAS DANDY RECORD.

During the past three seasons Nelson has had a great record at short. He played with Ludington in the Central League in 1921 and 1922, where he hit the ball at a .320 and .324 clip and fielded .960 and .962. With the Des Moines club last season he hit .253 and fielded .941 in 129 games.

His record is a very good one and he should bolster up the Trax infield.

During the '21 season Nelson pounded out 20 doubles, seven triples and four homers, stole 36 bases and walked 49 times. The following year he cracked out 30 doubles, five triples and nine homers. He stole 17 sacks and walked 67 times. Last year's record includes 19 two-baggers, two triples and five homers.

He led the Central League shortstops in fielding during the '21 season was second in '22 and third in the Western League season.

Billy Evans SAYS

What part does a star catcher play in the success of a club?

Will the Cleveland club miss Steve O'Neill or will it go serenely on its way in quest of another pennant?

It is a matter of baseball history that the passing of a star catcher, yes, even his temporary absence hurts.

Steve O'Neill has always been rated a great catcher. Last season, for some reason, his work slumped. Possibly the Cleveland club in trading him figured that he had passed the peak of his game.

Time alone will explain that.

A great catcher is invaluable to a ball club in many ways. Perhaps the two most important are the handling of the pitchers and directing the style of play.

When Hank Severeid, veteran star of the St. Louis Browns, was out of the lineup because of injuries last summer, the club missed him.

The Chicago White Sox without Ray Schalk back of the plate is a different ball club.

For a time the New York club floundered around last summer when Wally Schang was seriously hurt. The substitute catchers, however, once they got settled, came through in fine shape.

A ball club that boasts one outstanding catcher, often suffers in more ways than one. A star catcher in the lineup often retards the development of likely recruits. That has been the Cleveland situation—also Chicago.

The Cleveland club may go merrily on in its fight for the pennant without missing O'Neill in the slightest. In that case the club will have been vindicated in figuring he could be dispensed with.

The transfer of O'Neill to the Boston club puts it up to the young catchers to deliver. Perhaps all they needed was the chance to get plenty of work. The material seems to be there. It may take a year to develop it.

And then again, possibly the belief that O'Neill had outlived his usefulness caused him to be traded. Often a player of little use in one city goes big in another.

FIRPO HOLDS OUT FOR MORE

Tex Rickard Says Wild Bull Wants Larger Offer.

BY FAIR PLAY.
(Copyright 1924.)

New York, April 25—Tex Rickard's dope on Luis Firpo is that the Wild Bull is holding back in an effort to increase his value. Firpo is pretty thick about some things, but when it comes to money the well known fox is not more keen. He gave Dempsey a rough and ready two rounds and this fact he wishes to capitalize to the limit.

Rickard is aiming to beat him into submission by building up other foreign fighters. The trouble is, it is hard to make bricks without straws. Romero meets Floyd Johnson soon; we shall soon see whether Floyd will find it advisable to wear handcuffs. Anyway, Romero is no Firpo.

Nor does it appear as though Ermino Spalla can be used as a club to make Firpo listen to reason. No, just now Luis holds a lot of trumps and there is no use denying it.

MUCH TRAINING.

On the quiet Mickey Walker is doing a heavy bit of training these days. He is living in a country place just down the road from Freddie Welsh's health farm at Summit, N. J., and he uses the Welsh plant for a daily grind that is business-like in every aspect.

When Spalla gets here the meeting between him and Nick Kline who advanced him the money to come from Italy to the United States—whereas Spalla went to Buenos Aires—will be worth attending. What will Spalla say? No one knows. But everybody can guess what Kline will say.

HEARST PAPERS TO BE ONE COMPANY

New York, April 25.—The William Randolph Hearst publishing interests have evolved a plan for the consolidation of the capital stocks of eleven Hearst publications, to be owned by one holding company, known as the Hearst Publications, Inc. The new holding company has been incorporated under the laws of California, and next week will sell an issue of bonds in the New York market in connection with the new plan. Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc., have been engaged as the bankers to handle the underwriting of the new bond issue, which, it was understood, will consist of more than $5,000,000 of 6½ per cent first mortgage issue.

MANY PREP TEAMS IN URBANA MEET

D. H. S. One of 15 to Compete Saturday.

Champaign, Ill., April 25—With 141 athletes representing 16 schools entered in the first annual invitation track meet at Urbana high school at one o'clock Saturday, it seems that the meet will be about as successful as any one could have expected. Coach Pulliam has the field ready for the meet; the track and jumping pits being in good shape, and the events are expected to furnish some fast time for the spectators.

Urbana, Champaign, Decatur, Rossville, Hoopeston, Catlin, Tuscola, Rement, Fisher, Homer, Sidell, Oakwood, Rantoul and Sadorus are the teams entered. The larger teams, Urbana, Champaign and Decatur are doped to fight it out for the honors, but there are several other teams with pretty good men.

TO GIVE CUPS.

Coach Pulliam has received three cups, to be presented at the meet. One will go to the team winning the meet, one to the winner of the special cross country race of 3 1-10 miles and the third to the individual point winner. Medals will be given for winners of various events.

All events of a college meet except the hammer throw, the two mile and the high hurdles, will be run off. The special cross country so doing.

race is going to draw quite a field entries, some of the [illegible] the dashes and hurdles [illegible] will be necessary to run off preliminary heats. There will be four heats in the 440-yard dash, the three best times being taken for prize awards.

QUESTIONS

1. Can the pitcher get on the rubber without having the ball in his possession?

2. When a balk is called, what are the rights of a base runner? Can a runner score from third?

3. When a fielder is making a play on a batted ball, who has the right of way, fielder or base runner?

ANSWERS

1. The pitcher commits a balk when he gets on the rubber without having the ball in his possession.

2. All base runners have the right to advance one base when a balk is called. A runner on third must certainly has the right to score.

3. The fielder always has the right of way when making a play on a batted ball. The base runner must avoid a collision or be called out for so doing.

FOR INTERSCHOLASTIC

Arthur township high school is working hard on the interscholastic contest, the preliminary for which is to be held at the Decatur high school Saturday morning and afternoon. Ten schools are represented in this preliminary with Decatur as the district center. The winners of first, second and third places will go to Normal, Illinois, on May 4 to compete with the winners of the other districts.

This is the Tenth Annual Interscholastic contest in Shorthand and Typewriting. Music and Public Speaking were added this year which makes the contests even more interesting. Arthur has never taken part before and every student is working diligently in typewriting and music.

TOURIST DIES IN CAR NEAR EFFINGHAM

Verdict of Jury Was Acute Angina Pectoris.

Effingham, April 25—Mrs. Isabel Whyt Blain, wife of William M. Blain, tourists, died suddenly in their auto about 9 a. m. Thursday, on the National Trails Road a short distance east of Effingham.

They were enroute from Florida to California. Just this side of Montrose they picked up a woman enroute to Effingham and a short time later Mrs. Blain apparently fainted, whereupon the passenger advised Mr. Blain to drive as fast as he could to St. Anthony's hospital. When they arrived at the hospital a physician pronounced Mrs. Blain dead.

The remains were taken to the White & Davis undertaking parlors where an inquest was held and the verdict was acute Angina Pectoris.

Mr. Blain stated that their home was in Montclair, N. J., and that his occupation was a broker. They had been spending the winter in Florida and were on their way to California for the summer.

The deceased was in her 64th year. The remains will be shipped to New York City.

DOCTORS IN SESSION.

Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
Gives Better Carburetion

Thirty-seven nationally known automobile factories buy Red Crown Gasoline in tank-car lots for testing purposes.

These manufacturers use Red Crown because it has made good—because after comparison it has been found to deliver more mileage, more power, less carbon, easier starting, greater flexibility, quicker pick-up, and smoother acceleration.

It is practically certain that your car was tested and proved with Red Crown before it left the factory and that its entire carburetion system is adjusted to Red Crown Gasoline.

These are weighty arguments why you should use Red Crown, but there is a more forceful reason in the unqualified guarantee of uniformity which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) gives you with every gallon of Red Crown you buy.

Fill up with Red Crown anywhere and everywhere and you will get more mileage, better mileage, and better carburetion.

LARGEST SENIOR CLASS IN ARCOLA

Fifty-two to Be Graduated June 6.

Arcola, April 25—There are fifty-two members of the senior class this year, the largest that has ever graduated from the Arcola high school. Commencement exercises are to be held Friday evening, June 6, at the high school auditorium. The following is the program:

Invocation—Rev. A. C. Adams.
Music—Girls' Glee Club.
Salutatory—Selma Barricklow.
Address—Wm. P. Dearing.
Music—Boys' Glee Club.
Presentation of Diplomas—Rev. John J. Gunn.
Benediction—Rev. Thomas Costello.

THE CLASS.

The following is a list of the members of the graduating class: James Reeden Davidson, Ray M. Blackwell, Florence Evelyn Shirley, W. Edwin Hoschin, George Toland Pfeifer, John David Hull, Owen Glenn Smith, Dorothy A. Roedell, Ralph M. Lundy, Ralph T. Edgar, Katherine Naugle, Jean Pollack, John Galvin Bennett, Bernice K. McTaggart, Ruth H. Lesher, Mary Agnes Linn, Minnie Marie Sich, Myrtle Octava Campbell, Frances Eileen Haley, Grace Lucille Jones, Cleo Beatrice Campbell, Edwin Charles McTaggart, Irene Edgar, Beulah C. Wilkins, Ethel Wightman, Martha Elizabeth McCain, Quetta M. Woodworth, Hattie H. Thompson, Selma E. Barricklow, Ela Mae Halliwell, Hazel D. Laughlin, Jane L. Rollings, Constance E. Duncan, Orville Leon Roderick, Mildred R. Owen, Marion Everett Watson, Helen Irene Kaga, Orville R. Greenwood, Glenn Reeder Black.

Baccalaureate services are to be held Sunday evening, June 1, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. A. W. Hinkle, pastor of the Arcola Presbyterian church.

TURNBOW TO WESTFIELD.

Prof. J. W. Turnbow, science teacher in the Arcola high school, has been elected principal of the high school at Westfield for the coming term. Prof. Turnbow has been connected with the Arcola school for two years and has proven himself a very competent and successful teacher. Westfield has a modern high school with an enrollment of 150.

ROADS IN GOOD SHAPE.

Highway Commissioner James H. Davidson has done good work in putting the roads of Arcola township back into shape and this week it has been possible to drive anywhere in the township without the least inconvenience, whereas two weeks ago those same roads were next to impassable, the deep ruts and mudholes being so numerous that old timers would have given up and vowed there would be no more good roads this spring.

The greater part of the work has been done with the road drags. One day last week Mr. Davidson had twenty-six drags at work on the roads, in addition to the township machinery.

The last winter has been the hardest on roads in several years.

The Pennsylvania railroad company will improve its passenger station in this city by raising it and putting a waterproof basement under it. The basement which has been in use leaks so badly that it has been impossible to use the furnace during the greater part of the last several months and the office and waiting rooms have been equipped with three stoves for use in heating.

EMPLOY TEACHERS AT TOWER HILL

Tower Hill, April 25.—The Board of Education of district 20 met Thursday evening at the school house and hired the following teachers for the coming term:

Prof. W. B. Garvin, supervisor of the grades.

J. A. Culumler, sixth and eighth grade.

Guy Henderson, seventh grade.

Miss Lucretia Halbrook, primary.

The fourth and fifth grade and the music department are still vacant.

Roscoe Elier and Paul Corley from the University of Illinois spent their Easter Vacation with their parents in Tower Hill.

W. I. James has returned to Washington, D. C., after spending several weeks with his family here.

Earl Ward of Hillsboro is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ward, this week.

Miss Iva Still of Champaign visited her sister, Mrs. H. H. Runkel, several days last week.

W. O. Shonks was a business visitor in Paris Wednesday.

Miss Cecile Reed of St. Louis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Anna Sibbitt, and niece, Mrs. Roxanna Nichol and family.

FARM HOUSE BURNS.

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. James Sherwood, three miles south of town, was destroyed by fire Thursday about noon. They saved part of the household goods. The house and contents were partly covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stockdale and daughter Halean spent Sunday in Assumption with relatives.

Charles Shanks of Champaign visited relatives in Tower Hill a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Nolan Seitz and son Howard of Pana were the guests of relatives and friends in Tower Hill Thursday.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church will give a market and bazaar in the basketball room Saturday, April 26.

Mrs. Charles Renoe and Mrs. Alice Morrison spent Friday afternoon in Pana.

E. B. Culley, one of our prominent business men, enlarged his place of business last week. He conducts a butcher shop and grocery store combined and owing to the increase of business the last year this was necessary.

Harry Fringer, who is attending school at Charleston, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fringer, last week.

HUERTA THE NEEDLE, WORLD A HAYSTACK

El Paso, Texas, April 25—Adolfo De La Huerta, Mexican rebel leader, has been located in the state of Chiapas, Mexico, according to an announcement.

COOLIDGE IS SAVED 250 SHAKES DAILY

Ruling Conserves President's Energy.

BY WILLIAM C. LYON

Copyright 1924)

Washington, April 25—The White House handshaking ban is saving President Coolidge an average of 250 pumps of his right arm a day.

That is a conservative estimate by White House attaches who watch the receiving line around the noon hour day by day. As for the physical fatigue, they say it has saved a whole lot more energy than can be estimated in figures.

SOME WILL CONTINUE.

Small groups of visitors, it is pointed out, will continue to receive the usual handclasp and spoken greeting. But the president will be spared long periods of handshaking with big delegations and groups.

Statistics on the handshaking performances of Presidents are not to be obtained with any degree of accuracy, but old-timers of the White House force declare that the champion handshaker of recent years was Theodore Roosevelt. Next in the art of hand grasping was President Harding and Chief Justice Taft, during his term in the White House was considered no slouch at the art of friendly greeting.

WAR RESTRICTION.

President Wilson during his first term shook hands quite a bit but after the entry of the United States into the war, the restrictions on promiscuous visitors visiting cut down the ordeal to a minimum.

FROM NOW ON ABE'S TASTE FOR ONIONS WILL BE LACKING

New York, April 25—Abraham Rosenblum, known as "Brooklyn's onion king" accused of having cornered the onion market during the war, faced bankruptcy because a plan miscarried to dispose of $250,000 worth of onions.

BRITISH, SOVIET PARLEY RENEWED

London, April 25—The Anglo-Russian conference looking to the settlement of diplomatic and financial questions affecting England and Russia, resumed sessions after the Easter recess.

PROF. S. H. SHERMAN RESIGNS ILLINOIS

Urbana, Ill., April 25—Prof. Stuart H. Sherman, head of the department of English at the University of Illinois, resigned his position here today, and will become literary editor of the New York Herald and Tribune, he announced Thursday night.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenrhu, to others, who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenrhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. Decatur Drug Company and Bell Drug Company can supply you.

BEMENT R. A. M. HOST TO GUESTS

Other Chapters of 21st District Present.

Bement, April 25—Bement chapter No. 66, Royal Arch Masons, was host Wednesday afternoon and evening, April 23 to the Royal Arch chapters of the 17th Royal Arch district in Illinois, which comprises the following: Markwell chapter No. 48, Monticello; Farmer City chapter No. 155, Farmer City; Goodbrake chapter No. 59, Clinton; Mares chapter, No. 132, Mares; Macon chapter, No. 31, Decatur; Jackson chapter, No. 55, Shelbyville; Sullivan chapter, No. 128, Sullivan, all of these were represented. Members from five other chapters were here, among them being Terre Haute, Ind., Champaign and Tuscola.

WORK IN AFTERNOON.

The work was commenced at 1:30 o'clock p. m. and continued until 6:30 p. m. in which time a Past Master's degree and an Excellent Master's degree were conferred. A bountiful dinner was served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. The menu included baked ham, brown potatoes, peas, olives, pickles, celery, radishes, cherry pie, ice cream and coffee.

At 7:30 o'clock the Royal Arch degree was conferred by a team made up of officers of the chapters of the district headed by J. M. Kendall of Farmer City, and assisted by William Diefenthaler, J. E. Toombs, S. M. Northland, Theo. Coleman of Decatur, Amos Weedman of Farmer City, F. M. Crawford of Champaign, E. O. Dunscomb of Sullivan and Dr. R. O. Hawthorn of Monticello.

This team was selected by I. N. Tomlinson, district inspector, who spoke briefly at the beginning of the evening's work.

"LOVE FEAST."

After the conferring of the degree all entered into a love feast.

Consensus of opinion was that the day was a red letter day in the annals of the district as well as in Illinois.

Approximately from 200 to 225 persons were present. The visitors numbered sixty-six.

THE OFFICERS.

Bement chapter, No. 66, R. A. M., received its charter Oct. 7, 1864. The officers at present are: H. P., C. C. Walker; king, M. C. Driskill; scribe, L. L. Eyerline; treasurer, A. C. Studler; secretary, C. O. Houk; C. of H., H. Barnett; P. C. V., T. Turley; R. A. C., Glenn Kitson; M. of 1st V., Kenneth Burgess; M. of 2nd V., Everett Heltz; M. of 3rd V., J. O. Fisher; chaplain, G. W. Foley; steward, F. R. Flowers; sentinel, A. C. Stadler.

The Loyal Order of Moose will have a benefit dance from 9 o'clock Monday evening, April 28, to 12:30 o'clock, with Harvey A. Cox and his seven piece band to furnish the music.

Mrs. Ray Barns, Mrs. Troy Smith and Mrs. Edward Gentry attended the funeral of their grandmother, Mrs. Foreman, in Hammond, Wednesday.

Miss Edna Moore, teacher in the commercial department of the Atwood high school, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Nell O'Longhlin.

MOWEAQUA CLUB HAS EASTER PARTY

Moweaqua, April 25—The Community club enjoyed an Easter party, with their families, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith. It was a gala occasion. Red candy and Easter eggs were hidden in the rooms and all took part in the hunt, the women against the men. Of course the women won, having twice as many in three minutes as the men. Besides the club, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Tolson, the Misses Lois Riley, Maude Keller, Pearl Tankersley, Elizabeth Riley of Chicago and Lynn Stowbaugh.

Mrs. J. S. McBride left Tuesday morning for Barnes hospital in St. Louis, for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jolly returned Wednesday from three months stay in Florida. Mr. Jolly was very ill in an St. Augustine hospital for five weeks and they came home as soon as he was able.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Mays of Decatur spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Vandeventer.

W. K. Andrews, J. T. Haslam, J. F. Hickman, M. F. Stewart and Cliff Sanner went to Pana Tuesday to see the high school building.

Many plans have been submitted for the new building here, but up-to-date none has been accepted.

Miss Reatha Kimball of Shelbyville has been a guest of the Misses Wanda and Gladys Pontius.

Mrs. J. D. Woodside and family of Warrensburg spent Easter with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Birley.

Mrs. Hugh Green and children and Mrs. Grace Woodring of Decatur spent Sunday in Illopolis with Jack Woodring.

Lulu and Trenna Stivers entertained the Busy Bee and Primary classes of Fame church at an Easter party.

T. W. Snyder spent the first of the week in Chicago.

Rev. Mr. Shaffer was here Wednesday on Anti-Saloon League business.

Miss Clarissa Day was home from Normal university for the week-end.

E. L. Dunlap of Champaign has been here auditing the books of the Building & Loan association. He found them in good shape.

Beverly Armstrong and family moved to the Housh property at the northeast corner of the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Decatur were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pugh, as were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Goodwin and son and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Goodwin.

"MERRY MAKERS" CLUB.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. John Bilyeu was hostess to the "Merry Makers" club. The afternoon was spent in piecing a club quilt. A shower was given for Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Scribner, whose house burned recently. Others were present and participated in the shower. Refreshments were served.

WILL MEET MONDAY.

There will be a meeting of the Flat Branch A. H. T. A. Monday night, April 28, at the Flat Branch town house. Initiation and eats.

BANKS WILL CLOSE

According to their usual custom, the banks of Moweaqua will close at noon on Thursdays during the summer, from May 1 to Nov. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ahl and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hedges motored to Assumption on business Wednesday.

Miss Helen Mathias entertained with an egg and wiener roast. There were fifty-five guests and a most enjoyable evening.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL.

On Friday night, April 25, the high school will give a musicale. The event is to be participated in by all the musical organizations of the high school—band, orchestra and Glee club. The concert will be given in the Methodist church and the proceeds will go toward buying uniforms for the band. Tickets can be secured from any member of the organizations, or from the high school faculty and are on sale at Williams' drug store.

...S AND FUN PLEASE AUDIENCE

"Heads or Tails" to Be Repeated Tonight.

R. H. HEIL STARS

Decatur Amateurs Show Real Ability.

If Herbert Heil, the jeweler, should meet Herbert Heil, the stage crook, coming into his own store he would most certainly throw up his hands and yell for the police for Mr. Heil as the crook, as he played it in "Heads or Tails", the show put on by local amateur players at the Lincoln Square theater Thursday night, did the best piece of stage work that he has yet done in Decatur.

He was a convincing, talky, nervous ignorant as well as exceedingly funny "second story" man and in his part added much to the fun of the evening for the hundreds who attended the first showing of this melodramatic comedy.

REPEAT TONIGHT.

The play, which will be repeated tonight, is being given by well known Decatur players for the benefit of the training fund of the local baseball club and it is of the usual crook type style of melodrama with a lot of fun scattered throughout all of the four acts.

Mr. Heil, who with Robert Barracks had the heavier parts as far as lines go, carried off his character with unusual finish. His enunciation is good, his voice carries well and none of his words or stage business miss fire.

The story of the play revolves about a practical joke in which a young millionaire is egged on to fight with a friend who falls after a blow from the fist of the victim of the joke and a doctor friend, in on the joke, pronounces the fallen man dead.

THE PLAY.

The young millionaire, played by Robert Barracks, flees to the east side, New York, likes it and incidentally falls in love with a charming shoplifter played by Miss Eloise O'Mara and the audience is ready to admit that the falling in love would be mighty easy.

Later, the mystery of the play is revealed, the crooked cousin who tries to steal the estate and does steal the financee of the millionaire gets his desserts, the millionaire gets back his estate and also the lovely shoplifter, who really wanted to go straight anyway, and all ends as it should in any regular crook drama.

DOES FINE WORK.

Miss O'Mara as Jen Pomeroy, the shop lifter, excelled herself in the quality of her work, being very much at home, seemingly letter perfect in her lines and convincing even in the more serious parts.

Robert Barracks, whose playing is familiar to Decatur playgoers, did his usual good work being easily understood, with an unhurried deliberateness that gets things over the footlights and fitting his part well.

Miss Clarissa Flenniken, whose bubbling exuberance as the sub-deb or flapper type has already made her a favorite with those who see amateur plays in Decatur, scored her usual hit with her naturalness, her joyous acceptance of the fun in life, and she was ably seconded by Miss Nigel Larsen as the two girls made catty remarks to one another, disagreeing consistently at all points.

HANDLES HARD PART.

Miss Norma Connor as the old grandmother had a difficult part for one of her years and she did most excellent work in it as the mother and grandmother of the Pomeroys, thieves by profession, who were proud of the fact that "they had done no work for three generations."

Otto Kyle as the crook partner of Mr. Heil carried the part of the less garrulous and more serious minded professional thief along with Mr. Heil's gabby character very well indeed while Earle Roberts as the unfaithful trustee of the estate of the supposed dead millionaire did good work.

Everett Penballegon as the tall, easy doctor and Wilbur H. Duncan as the nervous victim of the supposed death blow added their part to the success of the evenly balanced cast as did also Cecil Abrams as the pretended but exposed crooked detective.

WINS TICKET.

Dean Turley, a member of The Review advertising force, was the lucky man to draw the season pass to Staley field for this year's ball season.

Another drawing will be held tonight for another pass.

Dismiss Case.

The case of Claude Royse of Champaign charged with drunkenness, resisting an officer and assault, was dismissed in Justice Dickinson's court Thursday afternoon for want of prosecution. Acting Chief of Police Scott Guilford, who was assaulted by Royse at the Vic and Frits dance hall a week ago last Saturday night, preferred to have the case tried in the county court, and for that reason he did not appear to prosecute in the justice court. An appeal will be taken to the county court by the city, and it is also expected that an information will be filed against Royse by the state's attorney in the same court.

Annoying.

London Tit-Bits:— Policeman—"He staggered along the footpath and used bad language."

Man—"Yes, because I found that before leaving home I had put my boots on the wrong feet."

START JULY 1 ON TELEPHONE CABLE

To Spend $75,000 on West End Work.

Work on the installation of the new 900-pair cable of the Illinois Bell Telephone company that will serve the west part of the city and will provide ample facilities for any normal growth of the west end over a wide period of years, will begin about July 1, or thereabouts, it was announced by E. J. Howells, local manager of the Bell company Thursday.

Much of the material for the work is already on the ground, but the cable itself, ordered a year ago, has not yet arrived. Delivery has been promised for July 1, and work will start upon its arrival.

TO COST $75,000.

The improvement of the west-end system will involve an expenditure of about $75,000. The big cable will run from the company's offices on North Main street out West Main street to Westlawn avenue through the underground conduits that are under West Main street.

From the offices to the company's station a 1,200 pair cable will be necessary.

CABLE DELAYS WORK.

The delay has been on account of the shortage of cable. Manufacturers are working three shifts day and night to get out the cable, and it will be supplied as soon as possible.

Speaking of the telephone situation through the state, Mr. Howells stated that Decatur and Springfield were the only cities that had been showing a steady growth in subscribers.

Tells of Recent Trip With U. S. Navy —Mrs. Woodward Tells of Convention

Fully one hundred members of the Roosevelt Junior high school Parent-teachers' association attended the meeting Thursday afternoon and heard a talk by Warren F. Hardy on his recent trip with the U. S. navy. Mrs. C. E. Woodward, the new president, reported the recent state Parent-Teachers' meeting in Springfield.

The music for the meeting was a violin solo by Mrs. J. T. McDavid, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Louis Chodat, and a group of vocal selections by Miss Mary Biethen.

The club voted to entertain the teachers at a dinner and outing to be held at the Fishing club soon and committees for this affair will be named later. Plans also were made to have the May meeting of the association in the nature of a party in the gymnasium at which time games will be played and refreshments will be served.

CELESTIAL LODGE TO CELEBRATE

Will Observe 105th Anniversary of I. O. O. F. Founding Tonight.

The 105th anniversary of the Order of Odd Fellows will be celebrated in Decatur, Friday evening, when members of Celestial lodge, No. 186 and their friends gather at the Odd Fellows hall, 141 East Main street for the evening together.

Grand Warden Roy Johnson of Clinton will be the speaker of the evening, the program for which starts at 8 o'clock. A social hour and refreshments will follow the program.

Measles Sweep Over West Side

Dennis School Especially Hard Hit.

It is quite the thing now in the west part of the city to have one's house wear a red sign "Measles," for the old-fashioned red measles is rapidly taking the form of an epidemic. The Dennis school seems to be the main center of attack with the ranks of the lower grades being depleted more each day. There is as yet no sign of the epidemic abating and only those children who have recently had hard cases are escaping.

While this kind of measles does not take a dangerous form, still the cases are far from light ones and many cases of high temperatures are reported.

DECATUR SCOUTS TO SPRINGFIELD

Scout Joint Camp at Camp Sangamo Opening June 18.

A group of Decatur Boy Scouts, accompanied by former executive L. F. Kinister drove to Springfield Thursday night and attended the annual Campers banquet of the Springfield Scout council. More than 450 Scouts and their "big brothers" attended the banquet held in the First Christian church and were entertained afterward by camp talks and a program given by Blackstone, the magician.

The meeting was for the purpose of boosting the joint Decatur-Springfield Scout camp at Sangamo which opens June 18.

The Scouts who went from Decatur were: George Hays, Freeland Harrold, Robert White, Harry Steinmeyer, Wayne Parrish, Jack Henderson and Robert Miller.

MRS. H. VAN ORMAN TO GIVE LUNCHEON FOR VISITORS HERE

In compliment to Miss Linna Holt of New York City who is visiting Mrs. E. B. Tyler and Mrs. Harry W. Van Orman, and Mrs. Fred Riggin of Sarnia, Ont. Can., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Tyler and her sister Mrs. Lester Klick, Mrs. Van Orman has issued invitations for a 1 o'clock bridge-luncheon to be given in the Hotel Orlando on Wednesday, April 30.

Miss Holt passed the winter months with Mrs. Van Orman and Mrs. Tyler in California. A number of parties are being planned honoring Miss Holt and Mrs. Riggin.

Mrs. E. B. Hillman of Quincy arrived Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Allen, 510 West Decatur street, for a few days.

Mrs. Will Barnes is entertaining informally at luncheon Friday in her home in West Main street the women of the St. John's Episcopal church who comprise the various committees for the entertainment of the synod to be held in Decatur in May. Plans will be furthered for the visiting women's entertainment.

* * *

Many baskets, with the color scheme of lavender and yellow predominating, attractively decorated the tables at the 1 o'clock luncheon given by Mrs. George W. Black in her home in the Commodore apartments, Thursday. Following the luncheon, eight tables of bridge were at play. High score prize was awarded Mrs. Eben McNabb, second, Mrs. Leslie Blakeney, and third, Miss Alice Jefferson.

ENTERTAIN FOR FOLK WHO SPENT WINTER IN SOUTH

One of the especially pretty evening parties given this spring was the bridge given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Spencer in their home in West Decatur street, the affair being in compliment to those Decatur folk who have passed the winter months in the south. Seven tables of bridge were at play during the evening. Crab-apple blossoms and multi-colored spring flowers attractively decorated the house.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plate, who are leaving in the near future for California where they will make their home, Miss Sarah and Miss Alta Dawson were hostesses at a pretty Mah Jongg party in their home in the Commodore apartments, Thursday evening. Three tables were at play. Spring flowers and decorations were used.

GOOD MANNERS

BE SURE OF TICKETS

Before inviting anyone to go to the theater a hostess must be sure that her seats are in a desirable location.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woare and Mrs. Woare's sister, Miss Bernice Mattes, are motoring to Chicago to remain over the week-end.

More than 100 persons are expected to be in attendance at the spring party to be given by the Illini Club, composed of former students at the University of Illinois, Friday evening in Mueller Lodge. Dancing, cards and a short musical program will comprise the entertainment for the evening. Miss Arlene Lumley, Miss Florence Cochran and Emanuel Rosenberg are the members of the committee in charge. It is quite probable that several University of Illinois students from Champaign will come over for the affair.

MRS. PAYNE HEADS CIVICS DIVISION

At the meeting of Civics division of the Woman's Club Thursday morning in the Congregational church, officers for the ensuing year were elected, with Mrs. S. L. Payne being promoted from vice chairman to the office of chairman of the division. Mrs. A. A. Hill was elected vice-chairman and Mrs. C. S. Slice was named secretary-treasurer. The director in all probability will be named at the next meeting.

An interesting and well-prepared paper on the "Evaluation of Illinois" was given by Miss Jessie L. Mills, in which she reviewed the products and soil of Illinois. This state is one of the richest in agriculture but is lagging in minerals, according to Miss Mills' report. She also mentioned the governors of Illinois, beginning with the first and continuing until the present time. Mrs. C. H. Patterson reported on the district convention held in Clinton. Current topics were discussed by the women.

Civics division of the club has one more meeting before the close of the season, on May 8.

Girls of the Mueller Manufacturing company staged a Leap Year party at the Mueller Lodge Thursday evening. About thirty couples enjoyed the dance. Caldwell's Collegiate orchestra played for the party.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Fannie Vermony, 117 North Monroe street, left Thursday over the Wabash for Lancaster, Pa., having been called there by the arrival of a grandchild in the home of her daughter.

Miss Bessie Vigus left Friday for Webster Grove, Mo., to visit Mrs. Frank Hanisher and son.

Mrs. Tim Collins has been in Mattoon all week at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. S. J. Severns, who is eighty-five years old and who is seriously ill. Her condition was still critical Thursday and Mrs. Collins may remain there several days longer.

Mrs. J. N. Tinkham, who died Tuesday in St. Louis, was the sister of Mrs. D. L. Bunn, 320 West Wood.

SIMPLICITY RULES LATEST FROCKS

Paris, April 25.—Every effort now is bent toward great simplicity in frocks. The lines are straight and simple, and the whole air of the costume is that of avoiding heaviness and over-elaboration.

Paris, April 25.—Odd little touches of red today brighten all sorts of garments. Pompeian is a rich, striking shade; lacquer is still in favor; lipstick is among the brighter tints; and carnelian is a newer, more orange-hued color.

London, April 25.—The little coriantis flower—a Roumanian importation which heralded the visit of the Roumanian rulers—has been copied in white velvet and is now a favorite decoration for dance dresses. It is employed in rather large knots on shoulder and hip.

London, April 25.—The parti-colored gown which Columbine used to wear in the old pageants has been taken over as a bathing suit. These costumes today are made in many different materials, the materials being feather-stitched together like old time quilts.

NEED PAYMENTS TO COMMUNITY CHEST

Many Subscriptions Not Paid Yet.

A great number of the subscriptions to the Community Chest are as yet unpaid, and the executive committee of the Chest is making every effort to get the pledges in as rapidly as possible.

"It is extremely important that the subscriptions be paid as soon as due," said Lynn Clark, chairman of the Chest. "It must be realized that all expenditures necessary to get in these late pledges is taking money directly from the various worthy causes that are dependent upon the Chest for their support. We are particularly desirous that these pledges come in as soon as possible without further effort from the committee."

To acquaint itself with the various institutions that are members of the Chest, the executive committee expects to hold its various regular meetings each month at the different institutions. The next meeting, May 15, will be held at the Y. W. C. A.

A Clean Cool Scalp

Parisian Sage Stops Itching, Keeps the Scalp Cool—Prevents Dandruff.

Almost everybody nowadays knows that Parisian Sage is guaranteed to remove every trace of dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, and stimulate new hair to grow.

But you should know more about this marvelous hair saver, grower and beautifier. You ought to know that it immediately destroys all odors that are bound to come from the excretions of the scalp, and in five minutes after an application, no matter how hot the weather, your head will feel cool and comfortable.

Everyone should have a bottle of Parisian Sage handy because it is such a pleasant and exhilarating hair treatment. Ladies like it because it's daintily perfumed, not sticky or greasy, and surely does make the hair beautiful, silky and abundant. Here's what a New York woman writes: "I have used Parisian Sage two weeks only, yet in that time find my hair has wonderfully increased in beauty, thickness and luxuriance, but what surprised me most was the disappearance of all dandruff."

"THE BICYCLERS" WELL PRESENTED

St. Johannes' Juniors Give Play.

"Short, Snappy, and Sweet" was the verdict of those who attended the first performance of "The Bicyclers" given by the Juniors of St. Johannes Lutheran Church at their hall, corner Orchard and Lowber streets Thursday night. Memory work by all was splendid and the interpretation of the various parts was very natural.

Wanetta Chatman and Robert Hill as Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, in whose home the story takes place, showed much ability in taking the part of hosts, and their efforts in bringing about a satisfactory ending were well taken by them. Ewald Schlachter, as Ned Bradley, the scoffing Englishman, could not have been better. His enunciation was especially good and the character he represented was well brought out. Edwin Hill as Robert Yardsley and John Nalefski as Jack Barlow, the expert Bicycle riders did very excellent work. Both were entirely natural during the evening and furnished much of the laughter.

Erna Gross played the part of Jennie the Maid and was every ready with her request that supper was served. Mrs. Bradley, the enthusiastic Bicyclist, was taken by Lydia Lukraks. Her enthusiasm finally lands her in jail, but is rescued by one of the experts. She did good work in representing her particular character.

The play was preceded by a musical reading by Mathilde Nalefski. The program will be repeated this evening. The proceeds of the entertainment flow into the 30th Anniversary Fund of the Local Walther League who are celebrating 30 years of uninterrupted existence.

REVIVAL CLOSES AT BUCKEYE CHURCH

Buckeye Church, near Millersville, April 25—The Passion week services held at the Buckeye Methodist church near Millersville, were well attended and proved to be of great benefit to all who took advantage of the same.

These meetings culminated in a special service on last Sunday evening which was attended by the largest audience of the year. The climax of religious fervor and devotion was reached when, at the close of the sermon on "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ," the audience arose and sang "In the cross of Christ I glory," indicating by that act that it accepted the cross of Christ as a token of God's love for "all mankind," as an emblem of ideals for the life of every person and as a symbol of sacrifice and service to be given by each to "all men everywhere."

This church has a rich program of events for the remainder of the year which the people of the community cannot afford to miss. Questions of public interest are to have careful consideration in the light of New Testament teachings in most of the services of the near future.

The services of next Sunday morning and evening will include matters of special interest to all.

BETHANY PREACHER UNDER INDICTMENT

Charged with Assault of Church Janitor.

Sullivan April 25—Rev. L. L. Shaffer, pastor of the Methodist church at Bethany, was indicted on a charge of "assault with intent to do bodily harm," by the March grand jury which has just made its report.

This indictment grows out of an incident which occurred in Bethany recently, when Rev. Mr. Shaffer assaulted the janitor of the church, a man named Silvers. He entered a plea of guilty before a Bethany justice of the peace and paid a fine. The case was of so grave a nature, however, that the grand jury conducted an investigation and the indictment was returned.

Sixteen indictments were returned. Judge Sentel instructed that a new ventre of forty be drawn to serve on the petit jury beginning Monday, May 5. Those drawn are as follows: Alfred Bolin, H. C. Fulton, O. R. Miller, Joe England, Gerry Dolan, C. R. Armstrong, Guy Piffer, W. O. Funston, H. M. Duvall, Leah Coon, Emma Howell, J. T. Welman, Alice Hawker, George Schram, G. D. Edmons, William Baker, G. W. Bradford, Sid Dedman, L. T. Butts, George McLaughlin, A. L. Lindsay, Freda Hicks, C. R. Hill, David Hoke, L. A. Crockett, Nettie Bristow, George Elliott, Clark Jeffers, John Floyd, E. A. Donnell, E. P. Woodruff, Nellie Bromley, James Cooks, James Moore, W. R. Wood, Ralph Oliver, F. A. Brown.

OTHER INDICTMENTS.

Among the indictments returned was one against Dr. L. C. Tusler, for "treating human ailments without the use of drugs." Dr. Tusler is a Palmer chiropractor and has been practicing without a license from the state board. He was released on bond of $500.

Charles F. Ray was arrested last week on his return from Missouri was indicted for "neglect and refusal to support his minor children." His wife was given a divorce last summer and Mr. Ray was to pay a certain amount of money monthly for the support of the children.

Joseph Taverne of Lovington was indicted on two counts. The first charges child abandonment with a $2,000 bond and the second is for refusal to support wife and minor children. His bond was placed at $500.

Percy B. Lane, who disappeared from Lovington some time ago after being manager of a lumber yard, also was indicted on a charge of neglect and refusal to provide for and support his wife. He is said to be in Portland, Ore.

GRAND LARCENY.

Four Lovington men, Theodore Governor, Harry Cheever, Lottie Jurick and Oral Buress were indicted on grand larceny charges. They have been arrested and have given bond.

Claud Ballard, who is charged with taking coat off C. & E. I. property at Cadwell, was indicted on a petit larceny charge.

Jonas Schock, Eli Herschberger, Menno Yoder, the Amish boys, who got into trouble last fall by breaking into some Amish homes near Arthur were indicted on a petit larceny charges.

Elizabeth Miller, who was charged with stealing a hand bag belonging to County Superintendent of Schools Mrs. Nettie L. Roughton, was indicted on a grand larceny charge. The handbag and contents were returned to Mrs. Roughton a few days after they were taken.

T. W. Carr and Wm. Licklider of Dora township were indicted on a charge of driving on a road closed for repairs. This is an outgrowth of charges filed by Commissioner Dick Lee of Dora township last summer, when they drove on a road closed for oiling.

INDICTED FOR ARSON.

Mrs. Fanny Cole was indicted for arson with bond at $2,000. Previous grand jury had investigated the case against Mrs. Cole, but took no action. The March grand jury found grounds to hold Mrs. Cole responsible for fires which occurred in Anderson addition last summer.

Joseph Miller, Jonathon Creek farmer, was indicted on a charge of damaging and secreting personal property.

Odd Niles and Dr. Logan Estes were indicted on a grand larceny charge based on the theft of an automobile in the summer of 1922. Mr. Niles is in jail here no and Dr. Estes is in the penitentiary at Chester serving a sentence on conviction of assaulting an officer. Bonds in this case were fixed at $5,000.

It is expected that most of those indicted will be arraigned before Judge Sentel Saturday and enter their pleas of guilty or not guilty.

IS ROAD PATROLMAN.

Lee McPheeters this week was given a state job. He is now patrolman on the state hard roads in Moultrie county with a salary of $1,500 per year. He has about twelve miles of roads to patrol.

Vivian Randol has filed suit to divorce her husband, Hector Randol, whom she accuses of gross cruelty, neglect, and other crimes and misdemeanors against herself and their three small children.

WINS ART PRIZE.

Harold Roney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Roney, who is an art instructor at Bend, Ind., won third prize and honorable mention in an art exhibit at that city Friday. Seventy-five paintings were entered and Mr. Roney's was adjudged third best. Mr. Roney is a student of the Chicago Art Institute and Academy of Fine Arts.

GARRETT-VOIGT.

Miss Rachel Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Garrett of this city, and Arthur Voight will be united in marriage in Chicago Saturday. Miss Garrett has been employed in Chicago. She returned home last week. Mr. Voight is employed with a telephone company in Chicago. They will reside at 601 Eeldon Avenue, Chicago.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion.

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and bloat right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Warmer Days Bring Demand For Plants

Gardeners Take Them Home to Set Out—Strawberries to Be Cheaper.

Many dozens of tomato and cabbage plants were carried out of Decatur grocery stores, Wednesday and Thursday, as the warm nights and warmer days made the home gardener believe it safe to set them.

The price of fruits and vegetables showed little change but the promise for cheaper strawberries was made by the merchants, who say this is coming for the last of the week. They now sell for twenty-three to thirty cents a pint.

ASPARAGUS.

Warm days and warm nights also promise much more and much cheaper home grown asparagus as soon as this vegetable recovers from the frost of a week ago. At present most of the asparagus is shipped in and sells for about forty cents a pound, but there is a very little home grown on the market.

BUTTER DOWN.

Butter is cheaper than in many months and the price range is from forty to forty-five cents, with country and creamery butter keeping pace with each other. Chickens are good sellers and they are bringing from thirty-eight to forty-three cents full dressed.

The demand for meat has changed materially. The pork which was eaten in large quantities a few weeks ago has given place to beef and there is a steady demand for cooked meats, boiled and baked ham holding first place.

Spinach is lower and the price is about twelve and a half and fifteen cents a pound. Some mustard greens are also on the market but these come in bunches, at ten cents a bunch.

Sweet potatoes are not plentiful and the price is high as it runs from twelve and a half to fifteen cents a pound.

LETTUCE HIGH.

Lettuce prices remain high while the market waits the home grown lettuces. The prices Thursday were from twenty-six to thirty cents a pound. Celery seems plentiful but the quality is not as good as it has been previously.

Some cantaloupes are in market from Mexico. The price is from twelve and a half cents to twenty cents for them. They are small and the quantity is small.

Beans and peas remain about as heretofore, while cucumbers are a little lower, very nice ones being obtainable at twenty cents each. They are all hothouse grown as yet.

LEMONS UP.

Lemons show inclinations of performing their annual climb. In the winter when lemons look sour and disagreeable they are cheap. With the first hint of warm weather they do not keen very well, and this and other reasons promptly boost the price.

Bananas are cheaper than in more than a year and very fine ones are now sold at eight and a half cents a pound.

ONLY FLORIDA HAS NO WOMEN'S LAWS

Buffalo, April 25.—Every state in this country except Florida has enacted at least one law covering only women and insuring to those who work outside the home some measure of standardization of the conditions under which they work. Miss Mary Anderson, director of the woman's bureau of the United States Department of Labor, told the conference on women in industry, which is being held here in connection with the convention of the National League of Women Voters.

Miss Anderson said that about 4,000,000 women are covered by such laws, the most numerous of which are those that govern the hours of woman labor. This limitation varied from eight to 11 hours a day and 15 states prohibit the employment of women at night in certain occupations. Forty-one states have laws that women shall be furnished seats at their work and 13 states have minimum woman wage laws.

"MA CARI!" "MA CARONI!"

An Italian nobleman tasting, for the first time, slender tubes of paste made from wheat, and then cooked, exclaimed: "Cari!"

This means good. He took more and said: "Ma Cari!" which means excellent.

He took a third taste and fairly shouted "Ma Caroni!" which means most excellent and delightful.

Thus was macaroni named. Today to obtain the "most excellent and delightful" macaroni you order MACRONETS. The ideal summer food.

ALWAYS HEALTHFUL SKINNER'S The Superior EGG NOODLES

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

(Copyright, 1924, NEA Service, Inc.)

Lose Weight — Gain Weight

One-half cup stewed rhubarb, 3 ounces boiled calves tongue, ½ cup diced beets with 1 tablespoon orange juice, 2 "hot-dogs," 2 tablespoons minced Bermuda onion, 1 cup ten-minute cabbage, 1 tomato sliced on 2 ounces watercress, 2 tablespoons lemon jelly with 1 tablespoon "diet whipped cream," 2 thin crisp slices gluten toast, 1 bran roll, 2 thin slices gluten bread, 1 pint skimmed milk.

This is an excellent menu for a warm spring day. As the weather grows warmer less food is needed and even the diet menu should be reduced.

Roast the wienerwurst in the roaster in the oven. Wash well and cut a thin slice from each end of each wiener. Put in the roaster, without water, and roast about 15 minutes in a hot oven. Serve with Worcestershire sauce and minced Bermuda onion.

The "diet whipped cream" is nothing but the white of one egg beaten until stiff and dry with a whisk. Two or four tablespoons of sugar are beaten into the white and one-half teaspoon of vanilla is used for flavoring. This rule will serve six "normal" persons.

One-half cup stewed rhubarb, 1 cup rolled oats with 4 dates, 1 soft boiled egg, 3 ounces boiled calves tongue, 2 rice croquettes, ½ cup diced beets with 2 tablespoons orange sauce, 1 cup cream of bean soup, 2 "hot-dogs," 2 tablespoons mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons minced Bermuda onion, 1 cup ten-minute cabbage, 1 tomato sliced on 2 ounces watercress with 2 tablespoons French dressing, 2 tablespoons lemon jelly with 2 tablespoons diet whipped cream and 2 tablespoons minced nuts, 4 tablespoons fig pudding with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 1 toasted cornmeal muffin, 2 bran muffins, 2 long rolls, 4 tablespoons butter, 1 dessertspoon sugar, ¼ cup cream, 1 pint whole milk.

The orange sauce for the beets is made with melted butter, flour to thicken and orange juice to make a creamy sauce. Two tablespoons butter, one tablespoon flour and one cup orange juice makes a delicious sauce.

Extra butter should be added to the cabbage for the gaining diet.

The nuts added to the lemon jelly increase the fat calories and are not difficult to digest.

If cream instead of butter and milk is used for the cream of bean it will be easier to digest.

Spanish and Venetian shawls have been very cleverly copied in printed silks.

Household Suggestions

Washing Brushes.

Brushes of any kind should never be soaked for a long time, or put into very hot water because its heat and moisture dissolve the glue used to fasten the brjstles. Immerse them only for a short time in ammonia or borax water.

Scouring Ball.

A good scouring ball to use for spots may be made of a strong suds of white castile soap mixed with enough fuller's earth to make a fairly stiff paste. Work it into smooth balls.

MANSFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bieritz and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Metzler were Sunday guests of Mr. Metzler and Mrs. Bieritz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Metzler.

Mrs. Josie Lyons and daughters, Mrs. Charlie Collins and Mrs. Ethel Wheat and Mr. Collins of Champaign were guests Sunday of Mrs. Lyon's uncle, Jeff Maxwell, and family, north of town.

William House remains quite poorly.

Mrs. J. T. Churchill was in Champaign Monday.

Miss Tillee Bryan visited her mother, Harrison Bryan and wife in Mahomet Monday.

Asa Young and the Misses Alice Rock and Isabell Clark, University of Illinois students, spent their Easter vacation at their homes in and near Mansfield.

Mrs. Ross Cool is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mart McIntosh in Monticello.

Mrs. Everett Whalen and little niece, Charlotte Davis of Decatur, returned home Monday evening after a short visit with Mrs. Whalen's sister, Mrs. William Whalen and family.

The Misses Agnes and Susie Smothers, entertained at a party Tuesday evening.

C. L. Ekiss transacted business in Monticello, Wednesday.

P. F. Smith and Henry Lawson were in Monticello Tuesday at the court house.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shreve of Champaign spent the week-end in Mansfield at their home here.

VILLA GROVE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Villa Grove, April 25.—The members of the Household Economics club were delightfully entertained by the members of the high school cooking and sewing class Thursday afternoon.

During a short business session twenty-five dollars was voted to the Woman's Club to help pay for programs and to help on salary of librarian. The following officers for next year were elected:

President—Mrs. Sam Combs.

Vice president—Mrs. John Hammet.

Secretary-treasurer—Mrs. Milo Sliders.

Roll call was answered by helpful sewing hints. A playlet entitled "A Clothes Line," was very clever and pictured the proper attire for school girls. Miss Eva Letsinger played while the different models were displayed. Refreshments of cake with orange and whipped cream filling and tea were served. Miss Illinois McCaskill is the teacher of this department of the high school. She received much praise for the fine work displayed in the exhibit.

KING-ISGRIG NUPTIALS.

Mrs. Julia Isgrig and J. D. King were married Sunday afternoon at the Mt. Vernon house. A six o'clock wedding was served to the bridal party at the Mt. Vernon House, where they will reside.

Mrs. D. H. Johnson is in Hammond, Ind., visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dick Mardis and her new son, which was born Apr. 15. Mrs. Mardis was formerly Miss Carrie Johnson.

L. E. Miller of St. Elmo was here Tuesday on C. and E. I. business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delaney and Mr. and Mrs. Benton Fonner were in Pesotum Tuesday night.

C. E. Warwick, machinist at the shops, has resigned and will go to Michigan in a few days.

Rice Jones has returned to work at the shops after an illness caused by an injury.

C. L. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holl and Mr. Ricketts of Pesotum furnished music for the fireman's ball Monday night.

Wilma Duncan has been quite ill with the grip for a few days.

Mrs. Ed Wegmiller was called to Cooksville Tuesday by the serious condition of her uncle, Dr. Mahon, who has been critically ill for several months.

The play "All aboard," to be given by the business men will be produced May 1 and 2 in the auditorium at the school house.

Church Notes

St. Paul's Methodist Aid.

The Ladies Aid society of St. Paul's Methodist church will have a chicken pie supper and advertising sale in the church Friday evening, May 2. This was decided in the silver social meeting held in the home of Mrs. Walter Roberts, 264 West Macon, Thursday afternoon. The sale will be composed of many articles which all housewives will find useful and it is hoped everything will be sold.

Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Long Creek was an out of town guest Thursday afternoon and Mrs. C. L. Dougherty, president of the General Aid society of the First Methodist church and Mrs. A. A. Hill, president of the General Aid of Grace church, also were guests.

Byron Doren played several piano solos which the women enjoyed.

The house was prettily decorated in keeping with Easter, the main feature being a pot of tulips which were brightly colored egg shells. About forty women were present.

Assisting Mrs. Roberts were Mesdames Fred Broxend, Harry Kellam, H. I. Doren, Tara Kern, A. F. Price and C. O. Cowgill.

Grace Methodist Ladies' Aid.

Eleven members and one visitor attended the meeting of the Eastern division of the Ladies' Aid of Grace Methodist church in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Mrs. S. H. Nelson had the devotions. Roll call resulted in $2.50 in dues and the customary collection was taken. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Hawley. Mrs. [illegible] Booker.

Science to Master Insanity, Old Age

Chemists Say Endocrine Glands Control Major Ills; Approach New Era.

Washington, April 25.—Science is approaching mastery over insanity, old age and other ills through study of the endocrine glands and discovery of means for their control, Dr. W. J. A. Bailey, New York, declared today before the division of chemistry of medicinal products of the American Chemical Society.

Dr. Bailey, director of the American Endocrine Laboratories, declared "we have cornered aberration, disease, old age and, in fact, life and death themselves in the endocrines."

TO FIGHT INSANITY.

"If we look more to the endocrine glands and less to the head," he said, "we have an excellent chance of eradicating insanity.

"In and around these glands," he added, "must center future efforts toward human rejuvenation."

Study of the principles involved in endocrine ionization, said Dr. Bailey, has placed science on the threshold of a new era.

REAL DIAGNOSIS.

"Today," he continued, "the decision of the saneness of a man is left to a jury of laymen. Brain experts will testify in entire disagreement on every case. Yet the student of endocrinology can point with certainty to the factors involved, in a rational scientific manner. We have too long regarded insanity as purely a brain condition. Its seat is unquestionably in the endocrine glands which absolutely control every brain function.

STAVE OFF DEATH.

"No greater truth has been vouchsafed to mankind than that these lowly masses of colloical ooze regulate all body activity down to the tiniest cell. I am satisfied that a method of endocrine ionization is now available whereby we can definitely, practically without exception, retard the progress of senescence and give a new lease of relatively normal functioning power to those whose sun of life is slowly sinking into the purple shadows of that longest night.

"Rejuvenation means more today than any other subject that can concern a man or woman. The wrinkled face, the drawn skin, the dull eye, the listless gait, the faulty memory, the aching body, the destructive effects of sterility, all spell imperfect endocrine performance."

Charles F. Murphy, Tamany Boss, Dies

IN GOOD HEALTH.

Mr. Murphy appeared in excellent health last night, according to his secretary, D. J. Ryan. He conferred with political associates and Tammany Hall, ate a hearty dinner and retired at the usual early hour.

Household servants related he complained of chills when he arose at 8 this morning, as was his custom. At 8:10 he breakfasted and almost immediately afterward became ill. He complained of pressure over the heart.

SUMMONS AID.

Murphy's valet summoned Dr. John E. Herrity, who lived nearby, Father Hogan of the Roman Catholic church, Murphy's daughter, Mrs. J. A. Foley and her husband, Surrogate Foley. A glance convinced the physician that the patient's heart had been stricken, that he was in great pain and near death. He was given a hypodermic stimulant and put to bed. Ten minutes later he died. He remained conscious up to the last moment.

ALWAYS TACITURN.

The Tammany leader, always taciturn, remained so up to the time of his death. To the doctor who found him in the bathroom in agony, the man's greatest concern seemed to be one of surprise that he should suffer from indigestion and of impatience that his heart should seem to have been affected. He did not suspect that his illness was fatal.

Mrs. Murphy was at Atlantic City when Mrs. Foley wired her that Mr. Murphy was very ill.

SUPPORTS SMITH.

New York, April 25.—The death of C. F. Murphy, chieftain of Tammany Hall, came at a time when he was engaged in promoting the campaign of Governor Al Smith for the Democratic nomination for president.

The chieftain had a warm personal regard for the governor, also prominent in the inner affairs of Tammany.

REPARATIONS BODY DISCUSSES REPLIES

Paris, April 25.—The reparation commission held an unofficial meeting this morning to discuss the replies of the French, British and Belgian governments to the commission's note regarding execution of the Dawes reparation plan.

SAYS DAWES PLAN CAN BE BETTERED

New York—Colonel Leonard B. Ayres, vice president of the Cleveland Trust company, who went to Germany as technical advisor to the Dawes Reparation Commission, returned recently on the Berengaria of the Cunard line.

"The plan which the Dawes Commission presented is a good one," Colonel Ayres said. "It is further advanced than any other plan that has been proposed but it can be improved. It is now inelastic; it should be made flexible. At the present time Germany may meet the obligations imposed by the Dawes plan, but who is wise enough to say whether Germany will be able to pay the sum fixed for the present or whether she will be able to pay more?

"My advice to the bankers of the United States is to suspect the Dawes plan with two essential modifications. One of them is a scale of payments which shall be measured by Germany's ability to pay from year to year, as I have said. The other is that the German gold bank be made a gold bank in fact as well as in name and be put on a gold basis. Every nation in Europe is made jealous by the suggestion that Germany be placed on a gold basis. There is no chance for any substantial investment in Germany unless this is carried out."

RAILROAD IN COLES COUNTY IS SOLD

Charleston, Ill., April 25.—For the first time in the history of Coles county a railroad was sold from the court house steps.

Some time ago an execution was given against the Kansas and Westfield railroad covering all trackage and any other property in Coles county, and at the same time executions were granted in the Edgar county court against the railroad to cover the trackage, equipment, etc., that were in that and this county.

Sheriff McNutt acted as auctioneer in Coles county, while Sheriff Sizemore served as the auctioneer in Edgar county.

The several miles of the road, including all trackage and other equipment, etc., was purchased by Messrs. Cooley & Price of Brocton.

The road was disposed of to satisfy recent judgments and executions were ordered. The sale at Paris brought $6,000, and $1,600 was realized at the Coles county sale.

HALLVILLE HAS $15,000 FIRE

Elevator and Only Store Wiped Out—Partial Insurance.

Clinton, Ill., April 25—The village of Hallville, three miles west of Clinton, was almost wiped out Thursday afternoon by a $15,000 fire of unknown origin, which started in the driveway of the J. F. Bartley elevator. The flames soon spread to the two elevator offices, the Jesse Lindley grocery store, which contained the postoffice, and on to the barber shop, the Modern Woodman hall, the blacksmith shop of Bert Pherigo and the residence of Dr. C. T. McLean.

GRAIN HAD BEEN SHIPPED.

All grain had been shipped from the elevator but a few days ago and the flames soon spread entirely through the building, creating a heated furnace which caused the flight of the flames to the other buildings. But very little was saved from the grocery store, nothing from the Woodman Hall nor the home of Dr. McLean, since then was no way of fighting the flames which spread so rapidly.

SMALL INSURANCE.

A small amount of insurance, perhaps half of the amount of the damage, was carried by the interested parties and it is quite probable that none of them will rebuild.

Farmers driving into the village late in the evening with products to be disposed of returned home with them, since there was no place to sell them, the Lindley store having been the only grocery in Hallville for the last year, fire a year ago having wiped out part of the little town.

A call was sent in to the Clinton fire department but since they have no way of fighting flames without the aid of water pressure, it was useless for them to make the trip. A number of citizens responded, however, but proved to be of little help in the emergency, since the flames spread so rapidly.

HANDLES SPECIAL PARTY.

A special party of sugar beet workers passed through over the Illinois Central Friday for the beet fields of Michigan. The party consisted of forty men, women and children. There was one family of the father, mother and fourteen children which came all the way from Texas.

FARMER ARRESTED.

"BROWNIE" RESIGNS.

Ward Brown, Secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. resigns at the meeting of the board of directors Thursday afternoon to accept a call as Physical Director at Michigan City, Ind., at a decided increase in salary. While it is with deep regret his resignation was accepted, his many friends are glad to learn of his advance in work and salary. Mr. Brown will remain in Clinton until Sept. 1, however, and will have charge of camp activities for the troopers during the summer, that of Camp Allouette and Camp Seymour.

HAS DONE GOOD WORK.

Mr. Brown came to Clinton three years ago as Physical Director and later was made Secretary as well, and has filled both positions most successfully. He has had great success with the boys' work and it will be a difficult matter to secure another who will be able to accomplish as much as Mr. Brown has along that line of the work.

The rifle club which was but recently organized and which has proved among one of the most successful organizations among both boys and girls also has been the cause of the older men and women becoming active in that line. Mr. Brown also has been quite active in the Kiwanis club and American Legion, and will be missed greatly in this community.

LUTTRELL-HAND.

The marriage of Darwin Luttrell of the Shawtown neighborhood and Miss Carol Hand of Weldon took place Wednesday evening at the parsonage of Rev. T. H. Tull, pastor of the First Methodist church.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Minnie Hand of Weldon, well known and popular in that community. She is talented and prepossessing. The bridegroom is a son of Nels Luttrell, and is considered to be a progressive farmer. They will reside on the Luttrell farm in the Shawtown neighborhood following their return from a brief honeymoon.

TAKES CHARLESTON ASSIGNMENT

O. C. Hostetler, who has been principal of the Moore township high school at Farmer City for the last two years, has accepted the superintendency at Charleston, Ill., where he will have charge of the high and four grade schools. The family will move to Charleston some time during the summer months.

S. A. ACKNOWLEDGES.

J. W. Andrews, divisional commander of the Salvation Army has acknowledged receipt of $1,310.59, forwarded to him by John Q. Lewis, treasurer of the home service work in Dewitt county.

In his letter Mr. Andrews expresses his appreciation in warmest terms saying that the contribution from Dewitt county was the largest amount received on a per capita basis from any county in the central Illinois division, aside from counties with a permanent work arrangement.

CONVENTION WELL ATTENDED.

The district convention of the W. C. T. U. held in the Library club rooms Thursday in a morning and afternoon sessions was exceptionally well attended and an excellent program given. Reports from all district and county officers were made.

Mrs. O. M. Keeler of Farmer City, county president, was in charge of the meeting and delegates were present from all towns in Dewitt county. One feature of the day's work was the establishing of young peoples' branches, with Mrs. Homer Gray of Clinton in charge of the older branch and Mrs. Hutchinson of Weldon superintendent of the small children.

GROVER HOFF SPEAKS.

The state young peoples' secretary, Miss Monnie Coventry of Edwardsville, was present and gave an interesting address, Grover C. Hoff of Clinton supplied for Rev. Mr. Young of Farmer City and spoke on "Women in Politics." Rev. B. L. Cartwright of the First Christian church of Clinton gave a short talk, as did Rev. Mr. Wunderlick and Rev. Mr. Neeley of Dewitt.

FLOWERS FOR CRUSADERS.

An interesting part of the program was a report by Mrs. A. R. Phares of South Center street, and Mrs. Hannah Swartz of Farmer City, both of whom are members of the "Crusaders," an organization of women which is now celebrating its jubilee anniversary, or fiftieth year. These women were among those who performed the duties of the Crusaders by appearing at a certain date in the saloons of the cities in which they lived and kneeling in prayer. Bouquets were presented to the two present Thursday.

A musical program followed, with a violin solo by Mrs. Lawrence Andrews, a reading by Mrs. Hannah Swartz of Farmer City, a solo by Miss Miss Gloria Huff and another by Miss Cleo Stivers.

START EARLY ON LABOR DAY FETE

Plans Launched for Taylorville Celebration.

Taylorville, April 25—A great Labor Day celebration is being planned by the local labor organizations.

Already Nos. 9 and 58 mine local have passed assessments to assist in defraying the expenses and committees will start at once on forming a program.

The crowd last year at the celebration held in Manners Park, was well over 10,000 and an effort will be made to double the attendance this year.

Frits Peters has let the contract for a new $5,000 cottage to be erected on his lot on West Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters will occupy the house when completed.

PROGRAM AT SCHOOL.

The Parent-Teachers association of the West School will hold its regular meeting Friday afternoon.

The following program will be given:

Subject, "Manners."
Physical exercise—Second Grade.
Piano Solo—Maurine Akers.
The Problem, of Bad Language—Mrs. Harry Hershey.
Piano solo—Darline Hord.
School Manners—Mrs. Fern Hatchet.
Round Table—Mrs. McKnight.
Piano Solo—Henrietta Bach.
Reports of the State Convention—Mrs. McKnight.
Report of district meeting—Miss Layzeele.

J. W. Fry of Mt. Auburn, seventy-nine, is in a critical condition at the St. Vincent hospital, following an operation Thursday morning for bladder trouble.

A suit in Assumpsit was filed by the Salem Trading and Finance Company in the Circuit Court Thursday against William Farrow of this city. The amount of the debt is $360, due on a note made by Farrow.

CARROLL FUNERAL.

The funeral services of Mrs. Elvira Carroll, eighty years old, who died Wednesday morning at her home on East Market street, will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church at 2:30 Friday afternoon, Rev. E. J. Campbell officiating. Burial will follow in Oak Hill cemetery.

GOES TO CONTEST.

Marshall Reipschlager, who won the oratorical contest in Springfield, will leave Sunday night for South Bend, Ind., where he will represent the 21st district in the oratorical contest.

Each speaker will be given twelve minutes to deliver his oration. Marshall will deliver the same oration which won at Springfield, "The Relation John Marshall had to our Federal Constitution."

SELLS RESTAURANT.

Barney Schulte, who recently closed his restaurant on East Main street, has sold out to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Perry, and the place will be opened the first of next week.

"Dump" Langley has let the contract for a new residence to be built on the lot he recently purchased in the 200 block on West Poplar street. The new structure when completed will cost about $21,500.

He will occupy it with his family.

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn.

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEM-ROID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leonhardt tried it in 1,000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent, and then decided it should be sold under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from Decatur Drug Company today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails.

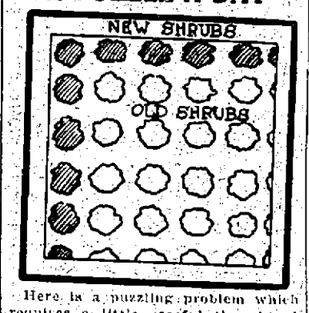
A PUZZLE A DAY



Here is a puzzling problem which requires a little careful thought. A man had a bed of shrubs. There was the same number of shrubs in each row—vertical and horizontal—the shrubs formed a square. One year he planted shrubs all the way around the bed, so they formed a one-row square outside the old shrubs. The new shrubs were the same distance apart as the old ones; they merely made the rows longer. The drawing shows a corner of the bed, with the rows of old shrubs, and the new shrubs. The man then had 61 shrubs more than before. How many did he have originally?

SAUER GAINED 18 LBS. ON TANLAC TREATMENT

"The TANLAC treatment took me off the ragged edge of a bad breakdown and gave me health and strength that make life and work a pleasure," is the striking statement of Arthur Sauer, 55 West Pleasant Run Drive, Indianapolis, Indiana.

"About a year ago my stomach went wrong and then nearly everything seemed to go wrong with my health. Indigestion, loss of appetite, restless sleep, pains in the back and chest, headaches, torpid liver, constipation and dizziness worked on me until my nerves gave way and I became pale and haggard and only a shadow of my former self.

"Since taking TANLAC I have gained eighteen pounds and my health is just about perfect. I eat everything, sleep like a baby and feel fine. I certainly have good reasons for praising TANLAC."

TANLAC is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold. Take TANLAC Vegetable Pills.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

Puss-In-Boots Tells A Story.

"Will you tell us about it?" asked Nancy.

"I'm going to take you to see a most important person today," said Mister Muggs to Nancy and Nick.

"Who?" cried the Twins excitedly.

"No other than Puss-in-Boots," remarked Mister Muggs, polishing the lamps on his little automobile. "He lives in Once-Upon-a-Time Land, not far from his master, in a nice little house with a catnip garden. He spends his time raising mice to sell in the cat market. They say he has made quite a fortune for himself—as well as his master."

"That will be loads of fun!" said Nick. "Let's start right away. Is it far?"

"Let me see," said Mister Muggs. "The kingdom of the Marquis of Carabas, his master, is in Once-Upon-a-Time Land, right near the Kingdom of Snow White. The cat lives near the Marquis of Carabas, who is his master."

—So they all jumped into the magic automobile and whizzed away.

They soon came to the kingdom of the Marquis of Carabas and to the little house where Puss lived and knocked on the door.

"Good evening, good sirs, and madam," said Puss-in-Boots when he saw them. "Come in and have a cup of catnip tea. I was just wishing for company, as I am getting old and a bit lonely, now that my master has a beautiful wife and a palace and a rich kingdom to look after."

"Will you tell us about it?" asked Nancy when they were seated in the little house.

"I should like nothing better," said Puss, stroking his long whiskers thoughtfully. "It was this way:

"My master was a poor boy—the youngest of three sons. And when his father died he left each of the older boys a share of his fortune, but to the youngest he left only me. So I felt responsible for his fortune.

"I used my wits—and wits, my friends, are worth more than gold.

"The first thing I did was to give my poor master a grand name. I called him the Marquis of Carabas.

"Next I caught a brace of partridges and gave them to the king in the name of the Marquis of Carabas.

"Next I went to a wizard's house. A bad wizard, he was, a very bad wizard!

"The wizard changed himself into a mouse and I ate him. Then I took his house and lands and gave them to my master.

"After that the king's daughter married my master, and they are very happy indeed. My days of adventure are over. Once a year my master rides to my door and gives me a new pair of boots. All's time for a new pair now."

"Thank you for being so hospitable and kind," said Nancy, finishing her tea and getting up to go.

"You're welcome," said Puss-in-Boots, "but if you hear of anything that cures indigestion, I wish you would let me know. I have had indigestion ever since I ate that wizard!"

Cotton Textile Situation Takes Serious Course

Wage Reductions Certain To Come, Mill Owners Predict; Labor Leaders Warn of Strikes.

BY S. C. ROYLE
(Copyright, 1924)

New York, April 25.—The cotton textile situation so far as New England is concerned, has taken a more serious turn, according to telegraphic dispatches received within the last 24 hours from mill centers.

The impression conveyed by these reports, which come from reliable sources, is that wage reductions in the textile industries of New England are only a matter of time. Labor leaders are frank in saying that if these cuts are put into effect there is a strong probability that a strike will be called.

BEARS ON ALL.

The effect of such a situation is not confined to New England. It has a bearing on every citizen of this country, for each one of necessity is a purchaser or prospective purchaser of cotton cloth in some form or another, and cotton goods in reality forms one of the chief supports of the dry goods trade.

Cuts amounting to as much as 15 and 20 per cent have already been posted at several mills where the workers are not unionized. It is predicted that if this twenty per cent cut is made effective generally, a strike can not be averted. Textile wages in New England are now 131 per cent above the pre-war level and only 13 per cent under the high point of 1920. In 1922 scores of thousands of textile workers were on strike much of the year.

CURTAILMENT NECESSARY.

New England manufacturers assert that curtailment of production is essential, not only because of the slack demand for finished goods, but because of the resistance of buyers to any increase in prices.

It is now admitted by many New England consumers of raw cotton that there is every prospect that there will be a shortage of the raw staple before the 1924 crop is available. They say that mill curtailment is necessary because of this also since there will not be enough cotton to run mills full time.

NOT YET ARRANGED.

So far as can be learned, the majority of the New England manufacturers have not arranged for their 1924 spring and summer requirements. They therefore face the prospect of having to pay high prices for raw cotton and of being unable to get sufficient to run at capacity if demand should improve.

The foreign mills, however, have already bought their raw cotton or are buying it now. Exports for the week ending last Saturday amounted to 67,096 bales compared with 60,329 bales for the previous week and 61,418 for the corresponding week of last year.

FOREIGN COMPETITORS.

The foreign competitors of the New England mills shipped over 175,000,000 yards of finished goods into this country last year and if the demand for cotton goods increases strongly, which is possible, they would be prepared to increase that amount largely if the New England mills were caught with short supplies.

In view of these facts, manufacturers in the north section of this country are seriously considering wage reductions.

SEE MORE SIGNS OF TEXTILE SLUMP

Boston, April 25—The passing of its dividend by the Narragansett Mills and the reduction of the semi-annual dividend of the Everett Mills from $6 to $4 a share are taken here as further confirmation of the depression in the New England textile industry. It is reported in Manchester, the home of the Amoskeag plants, that that concern may close its cotton plant completely June 1 unless business improves materially. The Manchester branch of the W. H. McElwain Shoe Company is running on a reduced schedule, with some units closed entirely.

LEMONADE PRICES DUE TO INCREASE

San Francisco, April 25—Indications are that consumers will pay more for their lemonade during the hot months than at any time in many years. The California Fruit Growers' Exchange has increased the price of best grades of lemons 25 cents to $3.75 a box, and this advance is expected to be followed by others until $5 a box is reached. Adverse weather conditions have curtailed the crop and resulted in a shortage of the larger varieties.

Thirty-eight new oil wells were started in this state this week compared with 32 last week, bringing the total so far this year to 510.

COMMODITY NOTES

SHOES.

Nashua, N. H.—The E. E. Taylor company has closed its shoe factory here permanently. The company will continue to operate its Brockton and New Bedford plants.

WOOL.

Fort Worth—Shearing has begun in the McCullouch county district where wool production will show an increase this year. Buyers have contracted for 150,000 pounds of wool on the sheep's back around Lampasas at 44 cents but prices since have dropped. Shearing will not start at Lampasas until May.

FLOOR COVERING.

Kansas City—Rugs and linoleums are selling well, attractive prices on the former having drawn trade from an exceptionally wide territory. Sales are being made to merchants located within a few miles of competitive markets. New fall openings probably will be held May 5.

RAILROAD EQUIPMENT.

St. Paul—Two hundred men will be employed in the new St. Paul shops of the Western Fruit Growers' Express on the thousand refrigerator cars which will be built this year.

FRUIT.

Woodland, Cal.—Europe again is a heavy buyer of California dried fruits. Demand from this section is so heavy that dried fruit packing plants are working day and night shifts.

LIVESTOCK.

Amarillo, Tex.—Grazing on the new spring grass has started in the Panhandle region despite the late bad weather of last week. Hereford yearlings which wintered on the open range will be delivered May 1 at $77.50 a head, a record price for this year.

IRON AND STEEL.

Pittsburgh.—Basic pig iron has been offered at $21 valley, making a quotable figure to replace the old price of $22 which had become nominal. No sales have been reported. Valley foundry iron is down to $22 furnace and is weak at that level.

COAL.

Boston.—Coal dealers here feel that the southern market has started the upward swing. Prices here are firmer but buying is still quiet. One large local dealer has withdrawn from the market temporarily.

FREIGHT MOVEMENT TOTALS DECREASE

New Orleans, April 25—The freight movement in and out of this terminal in the last month totalled 42,340 cars, a decrease of 1,600 cars as compared with last year. The decrease was due largely to the falling off of imports.

FULTON'S FAMOUS ICE KING PASSES

New York, April 25—The steamship Norwich, designed by Robert Fulton in 1836 and once known as The Ice King, has been dismantled. Its historic hull has been presented by its owner, the Coastal Steamboat Company, to the Senate House at Kingston, the meeting place of the first assembly held in New York State.

For the last five years the Norwich has been idle, almost too obsolete for service. Before that, when the Erie Railroad ran into Piermont, the Norwich made many trips through the Hudson ice floes. When it quit the service it was the oldest ship on the Hudson.

The Screen

In Vincente Orona, a newcomer to filmland, who has a part in Metro's "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," Arthur Sawyer, who is supervising the production, believes that he made a most important "discovery" for the screen—one who has the combined beauty and screen appeal of Rudolph Valentino and Ramon Novarro. Orona is from the Argentine and has been here but a year. Clarence Badger, the director, is enthusiastic about him.

The most interested as well as interesting visitors at the Metro studio during the past few weeks was David Warfield, who is playing a two weeks' engagement in Los Angeles in "The Merchant of Venice." Mr. Warfield is a close friend of Marcus Loew, president of Metro, and on every visit to Los Angeles always spends a part of his spare time at the Metro studios viewing new productions and watching the companies at work.

Pretty nineteen-year-old Brenda Lane, formerly of the Ziegfeld Follies and George White Scandals, has forsaken the footlights and Broadway for a screen career.

She has been engaged to appear in support of Viola Dana in "Along Came Ruth," which Eddie Cline is directing for Metro. Miss Lane was born in Port Huron, Mich., and received her education at St. Mary's Academy in New York. She is five feet one and one-half inches in height and weighs 110 pounds.

COSTS U. S. $1.39 TO COLLECT $100

New York, April 25—The bureau of internal revenue now costs the government only $1.39 for each $100 of taxes collected, according to an official report.

In the war, the report says, taxes became more complex and the number of returns and the amount of money to be collected increased greatly.

"Naturally, in this transition period," the report says, "some injustice in administration was inevitable. In 1923 the situation was corrected."

Unnecessary units in the bureau have been abolished or merged with other units, the report continued, effecting a saving of almost $100,000. In addition the force assigned was reduced at a yearly saving of $112,000.

"Before the year is over," the report closed, "it is hoped the public will regard the bureau of internal revenue as efficient an organization as the postoffice department."

Wise Bird.

Judge—S. P. C. A. Agent—I have a report that you're in the habit of shooting your poultry into a field and then running them down with an automobile. What's the idea?

Farmer—The idea is that I'm not such a dern fool as to waste my shells on dead birds when I can get live ones by running the rest of them to the auto shop.—Unexpected Returns.

Tit-Bits—A certain statesman recently became a parent. On announcing the news the doctor exclaimed gleefully: "I congratulate you, sir; you are the father of triplets." The politician was astonished. "No, ho, no," he replied with more than Parliamentary eloquence, "there must be some mistake in the return; I demand a recount."

General Electric Has Four Point Advance

Brisk Demand For "Nickel Plate" Brushes Away Rails' Early Hesitancy.

New York April 25—Short covering operations were again in evidence at the opening to today's stock market which displayed a firm tone National Supply moved up 1¼ and Bethlehem gained fractionally in response to the increased earnings shown in the quarterly report published yesterday Oils were in good demand Producers and Refiners leading the advance with a gain of 1c

Retreat of the short interest was hastened by the plethora of money call funds renewing at 5½ percent for the first time in weeks While trading was not in unusually large volume prices snapped back vigorously from their recent low levels General Electric extending its gain to nearly 4 points and Baldwin National Supply and Gulf States Steel selling 2 to 3 points above yesterday's final quotations U S Steel moved up 1¼ to 99⅛

Early hesitancy of the rails disappeared when a brisk demand developed for Nickel Plate which jumped 4 points on expectations of an early increase in dividend

"Greens" Popular Dish at Present

Many Out "A Greening" Along Highways.

The corned beef and cabbage appetite may have a number of followers but Decatur people put one over with the good old-fashioned dish of steaming greens cooked with a ham bone or seasoned with bacon grease Oh boy, what say? Too bitter? Not if you cook it enough The greens should be cooked in at least three waters and the water poured off each time Wild lettuce wild mustard lamb's quarter and just plain dandelion yield their bitterness when treated like this

Have you ever fixed them like this? Cut the tender part of the dandelion stem that has bleached a little and is near the root, cook it and serve with salad dressing, with boiled eggs cut over the top Better still cut a little pimento in it

A housewife in the west-end invited a number of her friends on a green hunt. Strange to say not a woman refused the invitation and when the party returned in the evening baskets were filled with greens

Along the roads leading out of Decatur people are out in droves these days and the fields are dotted with them

SHELBY GRAND JURY GETS STIFF CHARGE

Judge Dove Believes Its Recall Justified.

Shelbyville, April 25—Declaring that both he and the state's attorney thought matters arising since the last session of the grand jury demanded its recall Judge Franklin Dove addressed that body in the Shelby county circuit court Thursday, and set it to the task of investigating the disturbance that occurred a few weeks ago when certain men assisted three private detectives whom the city had employed to gather evidence on which the grand jury had voted some twenty-five or more indictment

WILL SPEED TRIAL

Judge Dove also said that it would not be his fault if a speedy trial were not given offenders against whom indictments might be returned and to that end entered a written order directing the clerk of court to proceed forthwith to notify the county clerk and the clerk of petit jury for the June term of the circuit court

USUALLY NO JURY

Ordinarily a petit jury is not used at the June term of the Shelby county circuit court, unless the court so orders, and in that event must be drawn thirty days before the opening of that term Hence the issue with which the court acted in having such jury drawn

Continuing his charge to the grand jury and in further explanation of his reason for recalling it, Judge Dove said in connection with the assault of the private detectives that indictments had been returned under the prohibition act and owing to a decree of the supreme court as to the form of the indictment and the technical condition arising the trial court had dismissed one case and the other cases would have to be dismissed that the violation of the prohibition law was a misdemeanor which should be punished if the jury should consider the evidence presented to them alone, that line Judge Dove also stated that after the one case had been dismissed and the court had adjourned for the day there was a disturbance in the public square which many persons called a riot

A DISGRACE

The court had no knowledge of that event personally he said but he felt it was a disgrace and if anyone had violated the law in that disturbance he should be punished He told the jury he wanted them to investigate and if they found anyone had violated the law he wanted an indictment returned against them

MUST BE TAUGHT

Judge Dove declared that he believed the great majority of the people were in favor of enforcing the law but there were a few who felt the opposite and these few must be taught that the law is powerful and must be obeyed

MEMORIAL POSTPONED

The services which were to have been conducted Thursday in memory of William H Chew were postponed on account of the illness of George D Chafee who was very desirous of being present

The quo warranto case from Findlay involving the election in a school district was postponed until Saturday of this week to enable the attorneys to be here One of them was not able to be present in court

In the case of Clyde Hazen charged with burglary and larceny whose application for parole was considered the application was continued by the court until the last day of the term The court was not entirely satisfied with reports which had come to him and referred the matter to the probation officer for a further investigation

Rev and Mrs J Stanley Mitchell are the parents of a baby girl The youngster was named Mary Elizabeth and was born at the Shelby County Memorial hospital

FIVE ARE JAILED

Five men are in the Shelby county jail for failure to furnish bond of $1 000 each required in informations filed against them for alleged liquor law violations, in the county court by State's Attorney Robert I Pugh They are Dewey Allen George Shotlock James Harrison William A Jordan and Harry Arterburn

VILLA GROVE CHILD IS FOUND DROWNED

Died in Water in Outbuilding.

Villa Grove April 25—Mary Emma Robinson twenty one-months-old daughter of Mr and Mrs D H Robinson was found drowned in an outbuilding at the family home in the south part of town shortly after noon Friday After the child had been missing about five minutes the mother went in search of her and though she entered the outbuilding did not see her Then Mrs Robison went to the home of her husband's sister Mrs H W Archibald five blocks distant but the child was not there

SAW DRESS FLOATING

Mrs Archibald went to the Robison home and lighting a match in the outbuilding in question saw the child's dress floating on water and the baby was recovered It was the opinion of Dr R W Taylor who was called that the child had plunged head first into the water

The child is survived by her parents a brother Junior four years old and a sister Elizbeth aged six weeks The family moved here a year ago from Fairland and the father is employed in the shop

SHELBYVILLE MAN KILLED FRIDAY

Employe of City in Contact with Live Wire.

Shelbyville April 25—Noble Kingston lineman in employ of the municipal electric light company in distribution for the new light plant was killed almost instantly Friday forenoon while in the discharge of his duties In saving himself from falling from a tree he was climbing he threw his arm over a wire carrying 2 300 volts of electricity and his head was thrown into contact with another live wire He had climbed a ladder he had placed in the tree and it is believed his spurs slipped as he essayed to climb higher on the tree trunk

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

The wires had to be cut before Kingston's body was recovered He was taken at once to Shelby County Memorial hospital where he died almost immediately The body was then removed to the R B Lantz undertaking rooms for preparation for burial

Kingston was about twenty-one years old and was the son of Mrs John Wilburn of this city and William Kingston of Decatur He was born near Shelbyville, and had entered the employ of the city, Dec 26 1923, for distribution work in connection with the new electric light plant that recently began operations The city carries compensation on employes in this department

INQUEST HELD

Coroner Sam Whiles conducted an inquest over the body shortly before noon Friday the verdict of the jury being that Kingston came to his death by accidentally coming in contact with a wire carrying a voltage of 2,300 The jurors were J C Willard, foreman, Doris Flanders, clerk J T Walker John Reeder A J Lindsay and Frank Stone

DEFER ACTION ON MUELLER CASE

Urbana, Ill. April 25—Action on the case of Walter A Mueller former Illinois student who was dropped from Scabbard and Blade national military fraternity, for alleged participation in pacifist meetings contrary to the fraternity constitution, was deferred by the fraternity in national meeting here, this morning

Mueller stated his case to the organization, which was supposed to act on it yesterday evening However the officers of the fraternity have refused to give out the results of the action, saying an announcement will be made "in a couple of weeks"

Assets And Re-Liabilities

Reliability is an asset!

And that's just the reason why The Review's A-B-C Classified Offers are all assets. These offers are of the utmost reliability.

The very nature of a classified ad precludes unreliability. It would, indeed, be a foolish advertiser who induced you to investigate his proposition only to discover it had been misrepresented. It simply isn't done. Such a practice would amount to throwing away advertising money.

And there is still more insurance against unreliability in the A-B-C Classified Section. The Review carefully censors all ads placed in these columns.

There's no likelihood of the A-B-C Ads disappointing you!

MUCH INTEREST IN MUNICIPAL PLANT

CONSIDERED AT DAM

One Man Wants to See Springfield Costs.

Considerable interest was aroused in the question of the possible municipal electric light and power plant by the proposition made by Mayor Elmer Elder that the council investigate the situation as it has developed in Springfield and some other cities where that experiment is being tried.

It was recalled that at the time the plans for the water impounding dam were made that Pearse, Greeley & Hansen, the consulting engineers, gave it as their opinion that because of the heavy investment necessary, the hydro-electric proposition was not practical for Decatur.

TOO EXPENSIVE.

For the production of electricity by water power the engineers pointed out that either a very large flow or a very high head is necessary.

Their records studied over a number of years, of the water supply on the watershed which contributes to Lake Decatur did not indicate to them that such an installation here would be profitable as compared to economic coal and steam power generation at the current price of coal.

Whether or not the city should go into the commercial electric business on that basis was not, of course, considered by these engineers.

Their opinion was wholly on the practicability of utilizing the power of the water which runs over the dam.

WANTS TO SEE FIGURES.

"I should like to see an analytical study of the cost figures on the Springfield municipal light plant" said a man who is not interested except as a citizen but who is frankly not friendly to municipalities going into business. He does not believe that the evidence so far brought out is sufficient and his opinion on the efficiency usually developed in government owned activities is not high.

"I notice that Lincoln is dropping behind on the operation of its little city owned street car company at the rate of $7,000 a year, twenty dollars a day."

W. R. C. DEDICATES FALLOWS' TABLET

Use Same Flag As Used in Decatur.

Using the same flag for the unveiling of the tablet to the memory of Bishop Fallows in the chapel of the Wesleyan university in Bloomington Thursday, that was used in unveiling two tablets in Decatur, the Woman's Relief Corps dedicated this piece of bronze.

Mrs. Inez Bender who was chairman of the committee in charge of the purchase of the tablet, and Mrs. Julia Bush of Decatur as well as Mrs. Flo Jamison Mills of Monticello attended this unveiling.

FIFER SPEAKS.

The speech was delivered by Former Governor Joe Fifer who told of attending the University at Bloomington to complete his education after he had returned from the war. Later elected to the place of governor he placed the man who was to become a bishop in places of responsibility and he said he never was disappointed in him.

The flag used to drape the tablet was the one used when the tablet was placed dedicating the birthplace of the Grand Army of the Republic in Decatur, and the tablet which marks the place on Lincoln Square where Lincoln often stopped. This flag was used in another dedication, that of the place where the first G. A. R. encampment was held in Indianapolis.

THE BRONZE.

The flag was pulled aside by the bishop's daughter, Alice Cady Fallows of Chicago. A picture of Bishop Fallows is just above the tablet. The bronze dedicated Thursday bears these words:

"To the memory of Samuel Fallows,

Bishop of the Reformed Episcopal Church.

A preacher, educator, soldier, author, friend.

"President of the Illinois Wesleyan university in 1873 and 1874, during which time he established the first university law school in Illinois. He was a promoter of a higher type of college work, a lover of mankind regardless of color, race or creed.

"Enlisting in the War of the Rebellion he served as valient soldier in the 32nd, 40th and 49th Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry.

"A member of the Grand Army of the Republic, chaplain of Post No. 28 in Chicago, and chaplain-in-chief in 1908.

"Departmental commander of Illinois in 1913-14. He filled many civic offices of honor and trust.

"Born in England, Dec. 12, 1835, he came to the United States in 1848, and died September 5, 1923. A great soldier, a great teacher and a great citizen.

"As an evidence of the appreciation of his worth and his services, this tablet is placed in the Illinois Wesleyan university, by the department of the Illinois National Woman's Relief Corps, auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, April 24, 1924."

WHAT DID YOU SEE?

FRANKLIN BEAR TO BE SALUTATORIAN

Wins Over Opponent, Carroll Conner.

CONTEST SATURDAY

Interscholastic Try-outs in Decatur.

Franklin Bear, one of the most prominent members of the D. H. S. senior class, was elected salutatorian Friday morning, by the graduating class. The election held Friday morning was the third one and the field had narrowed down to two candidates, Bear had as his opponent Carroll Conner. Bear won by a substantial majority.

Bear has been very prominent in school affairs during the last two years, winning his letter in football, belonging to four high school societies, athletics editor of the Observer, member of the cast of the senior play, and during recent weeks has been very active both in interscholastic and inter-society public speaking events. He is entered in Saturday's meet in dramatic reading contests, and will go to Charleston May 10 to compete in the learned oration events.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bear, 1120 West Forrest.

INTERSCHOLASTIC.

The auditorium Friday morning at the high school was to introduce the interscholastic events which will be held at the high school Saturday. The meet is a district affair, there being twelve districts in the state. The winners of this district go to Normal to compete with the other district winners. Other schools in this district include Bement, Arthur, Sullivan. The program of events includes music, orations, readings, stenography, and type-writing. Also both the boys and the girls glee clubs are entered. The Decatur contestants who appeared before the student body Friday morning are:

Learned Oration—"Toussaint L' Overture," Harry W. Miller; "Call to Arms," Evan Johnston.

Voice—"Song of the Robin," Julia Bohon.

All of the other contestants who will appear in the contests Saturday were seated on the stage.

J. M. Burstein Found Not Guilty

Charged with Possessing, Selling Liquor.

The jury in the case of J. M. Burstein charged with manufacturing, possessing and selling liquor, returned a verdict of not guilty, in the county court, Friday afternoon at 1:50.

The Burstein liquor case went to the jury at 11 o'clock Friday morning. J. M. Burstein, at whose drug store witnesses testified to having purchased liquor, testified that the men asked for cough medicine, and that what he gave them was cough medicine. It was not denied that the medicine was largely composed of alcohol, but the per cent. of alcohol was no greater, said his attorney, than that of the 'patent medicines that are sold at the drug stores.

DOUGHNUT DAYS SET FOR MAY 9-10

Y. W. C. A. Needs Money to Send Delegates to Convention.

"Doughnut Days" have a reminiscent sound which turns one's thoughts to grandmother's kitchen, but it is the Y. W. C. A. girls who are to have these doughnut days, choosing their dates as Friday and Saturday, May 9 and 10.

The object of such a sale is to provide the money to send four of the girls to the Dewey Lake conference. The four clubs known as the Y. G. B. I.'s have undertaken the work. More definitely they are known as the Young Girls in Business and Industry.

The plan is to take orders for the doughnuts and deliver them at twenty cents a dozen. One of the bakeries will furnish the doughnuts for them.

FACTORY EXHIBIT OF WIDE INTEREST

SHOW WOMEN'S WORK

Industries Present Fine Exhibit.

Much interest is being shown in the Y. W. C. A.'s industrial exhibit in the Wheeler building on West Wood street. A few of the persons who were expected to place and decorate booths have failed to do so, but on the whole the exhibit is a splendid one.

In some instances the manufacturers have indicated the percentage of their employes who are women, and in other cases they have not done so, but all these booths are from companies who employ a considerable percentage of women and girls.

IS BIG AFFAIR.

The Chamber of Commerce of which John H. McEvoy is president, has evinced a great interest in this exhibit which it agrees is a pretentious affair for the association to have given and quite worth while from the educational standpoint.

The Faries company has many exhibits in its booth, in the making of which the women in the organization have had a hand. The display is a pretty one and attracts from the moment of entrance.

HANDLING FOOD.

Proper and improper methods of handling food in the home are demonstrated in a very attractive way in the Home Bureau booth. It is shown minus and plus the fly, and with the open and closed garbage pail. Suggestive diets for the children, for the grown ups who wish to gain or to lose weight are shown emphasis being placed on the quantity rather than the kinds of food used. The plan is worked out under the captain "dangerous curves ahead," meant for the over-weights.

The Y. W. C. A. has two attractive booths, one the blue triangle for the sale of candy and the other illustrating in miniature the various activities of the girls who use the association.

The Hi-Flier company has a great number of kites in a booth that would delight the heart of any boy.

15 PER CENT WOMEN.

Mueller's announcing that "Fifteen per cent of our force are women who help to put quality into our products" have a splendid display in their booth.

The Combination Fountain company employing twenty-five per cent women have some beautiful Mah Jong and bridge tables shown in an attractive way.

The Home Manufacturing company which employs 150 women have dresses displayed on forms in a purple and white booth. These are summer dresses and later will be shown on living models.

A total of 162 girls are employed by the Williams' Sealing corporation making the seals for all kinds of containers, many of which, with the seals, are shown in the booth.

The E-Z Opener bag factory has its many kinds of paper bags for many uses displayed in the booth.

Osgood and Heiner have six dresses on forms, and the booth is decorated in such materials as they use in the making of summer dresses. These will be shown on living forms later on in the exhibit.

Decatur Malleable Iron works has a good display in the making of which their women employes have had a part.

EXPECT MANY TODAY.

It is expected that many more people will visit the exhibit Friday afternoon and evening than was the case Thursday. During the evening Friday the First Christian Sunday School orchestra will play, and the music will begin at 7:30. The exhibit is open to the public.

Refreshments of ice cream, cones, candy and other things to eat are sold by the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria and Girl Reserves sell candy throughout the exhibit.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT POPULAR FEATURE

To Be Presented By Little Symphony.

Returning to one of the most popular features of other years when such an event was part of the spring music festival the committee having charge of the arrangements this year has decided to have the Chicago Little Symphony orchestra give an afternoon concert on May 5 especially for children and the price for the tickets has been put at twenty-five cents each.

George Dash, of the orchestra, which consists of twenty-five of the best players of the large Chicago Symphony orchestra, will explain the music which is to be offered at the concert and will also make a talk on the various instruments used by the orchestra. Each instrument will be played separately so as to indicate its possibilities.

The orchestra will play that night as accompanists for the oratorio choir for its spring festival program.

Sues for Divorce.

Flora Beckett filed a bill in the circuit court Friday asking a bill of divorcement from J. A. Beckett, charging him with desertion. She asked that her name, Flora Thacker, be restored. They were married March 16, 1917 and lived together until March 4, 1922.

Band Concert Program Sunday

The program for the concert which the Goodman band will give in Fairview park at 2:30 Sunday afternoon is as follows:

March "Salaam Temple"—(J. G. Merrell).

"Providence of Sacred Fantasia"—(Theo M. Tobin).

"La Gipsy Mazurka Ecassaise"—(Louis Ganne).

Old favorite selections of well known standard songs—(Julius Seredy.)

"Atlantis, the Lost Continent" a suite in four parts—(V. F. Safranck).

CLARK'S LEAD CUT DOWN BY RECOUNT

Still Has Good Margin Over Reinders.

The recounting of the ballots in the primary election contest proceeded rapidly Thursday and at the hour of adjournment five precincts had been counted that day, making six in all, or two thirds of the number to be counted. Those that had been completed up to that time were the Twenty - Sixth, Twenty - Seventh, Twenty-Eighth, Twenty-Ninth, Thirty-First and Thirty-Fifth. Mr. Clark lost heavily in some of the latter precincts and at the close of the day his lead over Fred W. Reinders had been cut from 583½, as shown by the official canvass, to 369. His biggest loss was 154 votes, in the Thirty-First precinct.

RESULTS.

The result of the recount in the last three precincts Thursday was as follows:

TWENTY-NINTH.

Candidate.	Judges' Return.	Recount.
Clark	761	621
Clynowoth	316	373½
Reinders	79	91
Menzel	12	14
Persons	57	61

THIRTY-FIRST.

Clark	661	567
Clynowoth	160	169
Reinders	49	53

THIRTY-FIFTH.

Clark	237	243
Clynowoth	143	151½
Reinders	3	22½

W. S. Rise, one of the judges in the Thirty-Fifth precinct, became ill toward night on primary day and John H. King took his place. Mr. King had been one of the regular judges in that precinct. The poll books did not show that Mr. King had been sworn in as an election judge, and it was stipulated that while the counting of the ballots in that precinct might proceed, the right to object should be preserved until this matter had been disposed of.

The recount of the ballots in the Thirty-Third precinct in the primary election contest was not finished until almost 12:30 o'clock Friday noon. There were thirty-six ballots objected to in this district, most of them because the voters, in marking the ballot for John Clark, had used a different lead pencil than was used in marking for other candidates on the ticket. On those thirty-six ballots there were seventy-six votes for John Clark.

"If all objections to these are allowed," said Attorney H. W. McDavid, "Clark's net loss will be eight votes in the district. Reinders also lost five votes in the district. If the objections are all allowed Reinders will gain about eighty-eight votes in the district."

ARGUE LATER.

These thirty-six ballots will be taken up and argued later. Without them the recount of the Thirty-Third district shows the following:

Candidate.	Judges' Return.	Recount.
Clark	1212	1111½
Clynowoth	346	350½
Reinders	197½	101
Menzel	40	37½
Persons	59½	71½

Those engaged in the recounting of the ballots hoped to be able to finish by Friday night.

IMPROVEMENTS AT SPIESS MOTOR CO.

A. B. Hollabird Managing Chrysler Agency.

Extensive improvements on the building at 244 East Wood street, occupied by the Spiess Motor Sales Co. has converted the place into an attractive automobile sales room in which the company is displaying Maxwell and Chrysler cars.

The agency formerly handled by B. N. Hansen at 235 East Wood street was sold a month ago to John F. Spiess and the agency was moved across the street into the present location.

The agency is under the management of A. B. Hollabird, who also manages the Hansen agency. It is particularly featuring the new Chrysler Six made by the Maxwell company and the car that was the sensation at the recent automobile show in Chicago.

URGES CHANGE IN COLLEGE METHODS

Dr. Maynard Metcalf Gives Kappa Address.

NEED MORE THINKERS

Suggests Half Time for Research Work.

Suggesting a reorganization of the present educational system in the American colleges with a view to contributing real independent thinkers for the world, Dr. Maynard Metcalf of the John Hopkins University brought out some very practical methods in his Kappa Day address at Millikin university Friday morning.

"What society needs today," said the speaker, "is more independent thinkers and it is the work of the colleges to produce these thinkers. No matter how much the institutions are doing at the present time, there is no college that cannot make larger its contribution."

MORE PERSONAL WORK.

In the carrying out of these ideas, the speaker said, it is first essential to have professors on the faculty who have the spirit of devotion to their field of work and then to allow these professors sufficient time to be productively active in their fields—allowing one-half of their time for research and the other half for the teaching, which should be more along the lines of personal contact with the students (this can be accomplished only where there are not too many students and where there are enough professors).

"There should be no hindrance in the personal contact. The student should be put upon his own responsibility and should ever hold the thought of going on to graduate work for personal education and for world education.

RESEARCH IMPORTANT.

"The accomplishment may be achieved by these means" he continued, "and it should be held in mind that the research work of the professors is just as important as the teaching for it will make the college grow and thrive, and the contact of the students with such professors who have this spirit of devotion to their field will instill into the student the desire for research and real learning. It will make the student start upon what may yield great contributions to society."

"Do away with the present system of grades" said Dr. Metcalf "Do away with the record of grades, substituting only a card system on file in the office, with the professors comment upon the nature of the students work, degree of success and estimate of the value in equivalence to the college credit. In short do away with the cut and dried work, and use the personal consultation method, by introducing the student to research work in the Sophomore year. When the teacher sees a bit of independent and original thinking on the part of the student, then is his chance to cultivate it—to get the students going upon a great work."

REV. O. M. VOORHEES.

Following Dr. Metcalf's address Rev. Oscar M. Voorhees national secretary of Phi Beta Kappa spoke briefly to the students. Preceding the address Professor Albert T. Mills made the Salutatory talk.

M'COY KNOWS CONSTITUTION

W. E. Redmon Says He Should Be Well Posted Now.

Attorney Thomas Coleman's frequent allusion to the constitution during the trial of J. M. Burstein in the county court caused Attorney W. E. Redmon to remark Thursday:

"Judge J. H. McCoy should now be the best posted man on the constitution in the city of Decatur. With what he already knew about it and what Tom Coleman has told him during the Burstein trial, I doubt if there is another man any where who has more information about the constitution than Judge McCoy."

SAFETY CAMPAIGN PAYS ON WABASH

Only 66 Men of 5584 Hurt in Six Months.

GOOD RECORD HERE

One Injury Out of 2140 in April.

Is a safety department on a railroad worth while? Just ask Wabash officials for an answer. So far this year, the mechanical department of the road has made record of the lowest number of injuries for three months period in the history of the railroad.

A strenuous campaign has been going on among the 5584 men employed in the mechanical department of the road for the first six months of this year. The result for the first half or three months of this campaign has been that only sixty-seven men have been injured as compared with 180 injuries in the same period of 1923.

WARM CONTEST.

As the campaign among the various cities on the system goes on, it waxes warmer. In February with but twenty-nine days, there was only twenty-seven injuries among these 5584 men, but in March with thirty-one days, those same forces had but eighteen injuries. It has grown to the point where to be careless on the job is a crime among fellow workmen.

There are 2140 of these men in Decatur and so far this month of April or for the first twenty-four days, there has been but one injury among them. Decatur is opposing Moberly in this campaign and Moberly has had two injuries to date during the month. During March, the Decatur car department topped the entire list of thirty points on the system with not a single accident in the month among 615 men.

Decatur reclamation plant also had a perfect score but it has only fifty men. Decatur locomotive department with 880 men had one injury in March; the roundhouse with 387 men had four and the supply department with 208 men had three injuries. In Decatur alone, there has been but twenty-five injured in the first three months this year as compared with sixty-nine in the same period last year.

CAUSE OF WRECK.

Bar on Engine Dropped E. Steinlicht Said Before Death.

The first evidence to be made public that would indicate what caused the derailment and turning over of the engine on the Wabash Champaign Branch line in January, causing the death of both engineer and firemen, came out at the coroner's inquest over the body of E. J. Steinlicht in Danville Thursday. The only witness heard was the attending physician who said that Steinlicht told him that a heavy bar under the tank of the engine had dropped down, derailing the machine.

The physician testified that the scalds that Steinlicht received were not in themselves necessarily fatal but that Steinlicht died from exhaustion from toxaemia, a form of blood poisoning caused by the scalds. Steinlicht's body was taken by his parents to their home in Iowa. Engineer Earl Cloney and Fireman Boyer have gone to attend the funeral.

Cheerful News.

A cheerful little card came Thursday to a number of local railroad men who had made investments in stocks and other securities through the bankrupt Eriebel and Co. of Chicago. This firm became bankrupt a year or more ago. The report of the receiver to these men is that there is $296,000 on hand as assets of the company. The lawyers ask fees of $15,000 and the rest will be left for those who had money invested.

Wabash Club.

The Wabash club will hold a dinner and dance at the Daniel Boone Tavern in Columbia, Mo., Saturday night. About 350 will attend from over the system. They will gather in St. Louis and leave there on a special train for Columbia at 12:15 Saturday afternoon, returning at 6:30 Sunday a. m. The special train will have six Pullman and two private cars. Among those going from Decatur are George F. Hess, W. A. Pownall, J. H. Gimpel, Henry Eisele and Jack Ganley all of the mechanical department. All of these men will be accompanied by their wives and Mr. Gimpel will also be accompanied by his two daughters.

Railroad Notes.

Heat on the last day or two caused some slight kinks in Wabash tracks just south of Decatur but they were immediately straightened out by section forces.

The Chicago White Sox ball team in two private Pullman sleepers will pass through Decatur Friday night on the rear of Wabash No. 2 en route from St. Louis to Detroit.

Tom Wheeler Wabash extra dispatcher, has returned from visiting his mother who is seriously ill at Jacksonville.

Charley Ruck, Wabash switchman, who has been in the Wabash hospital here rather seriously ill for several weeks, was able to leave the institution and go home Wednesday.

George Blue, Wabash switchman, who has been in the hospital from a broken ankle since during the winter, is now able to get around on his crutches and hopes to be able to go home in a week or two.

Engineer Jim Gallivan of the north end, who has been in the hospital from numerous severe injuries for several months, is now able to be up and around the hospital some.

Conductor B. F. Lillybeck of the Wabash north end, who has been in the hospital several days, is now able to be around and is improving steadily.

Conductor Frank Jordan of the south end of the Wabash returned to his same job Friday. He was blown from the top of his train during a heavy wind some weeks ago at Bondy, Ill.

The egg movement on the Wabash through here Thursday was forty-six cars and the grain movement was forty-three carloads.

The lake level at noon Friday was 610.2 as compared to 610.25 at the same hour Thursday.

TO CONFERENCE

The general board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night voted to send W. H. Duerr, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., to the annual national conference of Y. M. C. A. secretaries to be held in Blue Ridge camp, Black Mountain, N. C., May 27-30.

OIL FILLING STATION.

The Texaco Oil company is excavating the high lot at the southeast corner of Monroe and Eldorado street, cutting it down to sidewalk level, and expect to erect a filling station there.

METCALF SPEAKS TONIGHT.

Dr. Maynard Metcalf, Kappa Day speaker at Millikin university, will speak at 8 Friday evening upon the subject, "Man's Future—Can He Control It?" Dr. Metcalf is at present with the Johns Hopkins university but was formerly at Oberlin College. He is a nationally known authority.

BALLOT LOST.

Those engaged in recounting the ballots in the primary election contest found one ballot in the Thirty-fifth precinct Thursday afternoon indicating that the voter was absolutely impartial. He had marked his ballot for every candidate on the ticket from president down. Of course he might as well have remained at home for his ballot could not be counted for any of the candidates.

ILLINI HOME BUREAU.

The Illini Home Bureau unit will give a play in the Illini church, Saturday evening, April 26.

WILLIAM CONLON TO BE ART EDITOR

To Be in Charge of 1926 Millidek Work.

William Conlon of Decatur, a sophomore at Millikin university was named art editor of the 1926 Millidek Tuesday evening. The 1926 book, edited by the juniors of next year is already under way and Mr. Conlon will begin his work on the book immediately.

William Conlon has had considerable experience in making drawings for publications already, having served as art editor of the both the Observer and the Decanots while at Decatur high school, making all the drawings for the 1922 Decanois. He has made contributions to the Millidecks of 1924 and 1925, at Millikin. Conlon has done some splendid work in the art department at J. M. U. and in his Freshman year was awarded first prize as being the student in his class, who showed the greatest promise of development. Similar awards were made in other classes at the same time. He also won a prize in a contest given by a firm for drawings of card tables and has entered in the Staley Art contest this year.

With Robert Walters, he made the drawings for a catalog put out by the Progress Mfg. Co. of Arthur. All the drawings in color in this book with the exception of one, are made by the two J. M. U. students.

It will be necessary, in keeping up with the time schedule set by the Millidek board of the 1926 book, to have the border design ready either by the end of this year or the very start of the next collegiate year. There will be numerous other drawings to be made for the annual and Conlon has announced his intention of starting immediately upon this task.

PLAN ELIMINATION OF MANY DRIVES

Congregational Church to Take Up Problem.

CONSTANT STREAM

Seek to Protect Worthiest of Movements.

To eliminate "the financial grabbag" from Congregational churches is the idea back of a resolution to be presented at the Illinois Conference of Congregational churches, which will be held in Decatur May 5 and 6, according to Edwin S. Carr, Field Secretary of the Congregational Conference of Illinois, who was in Decatur Friday.

IS VEXING PROBLEM.

"One of the most vexing problems of the local church is how to guage and handle the various drives that are constantly bobbing up demanding attention in the community," said Mr. Carr. "Our ministers are being pestered to death by solicitors and propagandists and promoters, who want all other considerations put aside to give place to their particular movements.

"Almost every Sunday some enthusiast comes forward with a new scheme for getting money from the church people. Many of these are worthy and should have support. But the worthy causes have their edges dulled by the fact that there are so many such drives constantly under way."

USE CONSIDERATION.

Mr. Carr said that he had seen a card prominently displayed in a Decatur restaurant where he ate breakfast Friday morning, setting forth the fact that the owner of the place would not consider the plea of any solicitor who came without a card of approval and endorsement from the Association of Commerce of Decatur.

"That's just the idea that ought to be put in operation in the churches," said Mr. Carr. "If a little more care is taken in advance of consideration of new drives for funds, the church people will soon find themselves on a business basis that will operate to protect the worthiest movements and that will prevent the constant drains that are being felt by all of us. The church needs a clearing-house for handling drives for funds."

COMMITTEE OF SEVEN.

A resolution on the subject was adopted at a meeting of the Central West association of Illinois Congregational churches held at Toulon, Ill., April 22. The idea incorporated in this resolution will come up at the state conference in Decatur.

A committee consisting of seven laymen "of practical business experience," with the avowed purpose of organizing and coordinating financial appeals unprovided for by the regular apportionment plan of the church, was appointed to cooperate with the advisory committee.

THE RESOLUTION.

Following is the resolution adopted by the Central West association in the meeting at Toulon last Tuesday:

"Whereas—Considerable misunderstanding and bewilderment exists in the Congregational communities of Illinois because of the several campaigns for funds being conducted simultaneously by different worthy enterprises associated with our denomination, other than the accepted Congregational boards, and

"Whereas—These campaigns are being conducted with no relation to one another, each being presented as 'the most important project before us at the present time,' and

"Whereas—The confusion arising from these methods results in unreasonable expense in the collection of funds, as well as in a spreading refusal to contribute to any one of them—therefore

"Be it Resolved—That the Central West Association of Congregational Churches of Illinois, in sixty-sixth annual meeting assembled, urge upon the state conference the importance of examining into the present situation without delay, with the idea of consolidating such campaigns on a scientific basis, into one campaign to raise a reasonable amount which shall be apportioned among the enterprises involved, to the end that relief be given to the churches of the state as well as to the enterprises involved and further

"Be it Resolved—That a special committee of five laymen be appointed by the state conference to advise with the executive council of the state conference to achieve this greatly-to-be desired result."

CENTRAL WEST.

The Central West Association of Illinois Congregational Churches consists of the following cities: Galesburg, Peoria, Galva, Wyoming, Toulon, Chillicothe, Lacon and Pekin. Decatur is in the Springfield district.

The thought back of this movement is to have a state committee supreme in its jurisdiction over state and national drives for funds, while district and community committees will operate to check the increasing number of these drives that are being pushed for attention.

RAIN FALLS ON DRAKE STADIUM

Drake Stadium, Des Moines, Ia., April 25—(AP)—A drizzling rain which threatened to make the finely conditioned track slow and heavy descended on the Drake stadium a few minutes before the start of the Drake relay carnival this afternoon keeping the attendance below 2,000.

The meet attracted a record breaking entry list of 2,000 athletes from 191 institutions.
